DEPARTMENT OF FOOD AND AGRICULTURE
DIVISION OF FAIRS AND EXPOSITIONS
ENTRY STATEMENT

The Division of Fairs and Expositions believes the mission of competitive exhibits at fairs is to ensure the competition is educational, ethical and equitable. This will be accomplished in a manner representing the highest integrity and standards of all participants. UPON SUBMITTAL AND SIGNATURE OF THE ENTRY FORM: Exhibitors (including agents and junior exhibitors/parents/leaders/advisors) acknowledge and agree to the following principles for competition.

1. Exhibitors will comply with printed Fair and State Rules and accept all responsibility for their exhibits.
2. Exhibitors will indemnify Fairs & Expositions and the fair from any loss resulting from rules enforcement.
3. Exhibitors must be able to prove their eligibility and that of their exhibits according to fair rules and acknowledge that misrepresentations of any kind are prohibited.
4. Junior exhibitors are expected to prepare, manage and present their own exhibits.
5. Exhibitors will conduct themselves with sportsmanship, integrity and cooperation with all participants.

IN FULFILLMENT OF THEIR RESPONSIBILITIES, THE DIVISION OF FAIRS AND EXPOSITIONS AGREE TO THE FOLLOWING PRINCIPLES FOR COMPETITION:

1. Fairs will advocate and enforce the printed rules.
2. In the case of rule violations or in practices determined to be unethical and inappropriate with the competitive exhibit program:
 - a. The Fair has the right to deny entry or remove any exhibitor or exhibit that is determined ineligible or whose presentation is deemed not in the best interest of the fair, endangers the public, or has violated the rules.
 - b. The Fair shall discipline such exhibitors as deemed appropriate.
 - c. The Fair shall submit a written report of such discipline to the appropriate governing body of the Division of Fairs and Expositions, regulatory agency, youth or breed association.
3. Fair staff will conduct themselves with integrity, professionalism and cooperation with all participants.
4. Fair staff will not be responsible for the accuracy of Exhibitor's entry forms.
5. Fair management reserves the right to cancel, augment, or replace any DIVISION or CLASS and combine Division and or classes as it deems necessary for competition purposes.

All rules contained in the 'State Rules for California Fairs' as prescribed by the Division of Fairs and expositions apply to this fair. Copies of this booklet may be obtained at:

http://www.cdfa.ca.gov/fe/fair_information/state_rules_for_california_fairs.asp or pick up a copy from the Glenn County Fair Office.

General Rules and Regulations

State Rules are applicable to all classes offered, exhibitors and entries entered at the 2023 Glenn County Fair. State Rules and Health Rules applicable to the Senior Department apply to the Junior Department. All rules and regulations listed are for all entry categories of the Glenn County Fair, it is the responsibility of the exhibitor to read, and adhere to all applicable rules to area of entry. The 42nd District Agricultural Association will be referred to and known as the Glenn County Fair, the association or the fair in the following rules and regulations.

- 1) EXHIBITOR RESPONSIBILITY - Each exhibitor is solely responsible for any direct or consequent loss, injury or damage done from their animal. Glenn County Fair is not responsible for any theft or loss.
- 2) BUILDING DESIGNATION: The Glenn County Fair will designate the buildings entries will be displayed and reserves the right to change the building designation at any time.
- 3) STILLS RELEASE OF ENTRIES: Still entries will be released the Monday after the close of the Glenn County Fair. Entries are to be picked during the time listed in the exhibitor guidebook, any entries not picked up after 7 days without prior arrangements will become property of the Glenn County Fair.
- 4) JUDGING OF STILLS: Stills judging is closed to the public. Judges may move an exhibit to a more appropriate division and class as deemed necessary.
- 5) All animal livestock must be in place by 4:00PM on Tuesday of the week of Fair. All exhibits that are entered for competition or display on the fairgrounds shall be subject to the control of the Association, which will exercise great care and precaution for its safe preservation, but Glenn County Fair is not responsible for any theft loss or damage to the exhibits. If exhibitors desire protection against loss or damage or injury from fire or other causes, they must make their own arrangements.
- 6) CALIFORNIA STATE RULES will take precedence over any entry into the fair. No exceptions. All rules contained in the State Rules for California Fairs as prescribed by the Divisions of Fairs and Expositions apply to this fair. Copies of the booklet may be obtained at:
https://www.cdfa.ca.gov/Fairs_&_Expositions/Fair_Information/State_Rules_for_California_Fairs.asp
- 7) Violation of State Rules is an automatic disqualification from showing and can mean an exhibitor may be barred from showing in the future at any California Fair.
- 8) RV SPACES: Please refer to www.glenncountyfair.org for more information on trailer and camper spaces.
- 9) ZERO TOLERANCE: Glenn County Fair, in conjunction with local law enforcement agencies, adopted a "No Tolerance Policy". The policy simply says any minor caught drinking an alcoholic beverage or using a controlled substance, in possession of an alcoholic beverage or controlled substance or giving alcohol or a controlled substance to other minors will be arrested, prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law. Exhibitors will be excused from the fairgrounds and will forfeit all premium money and awards.
- 10) CONDUCT: Minor violations of the fair rules will result in following consequences: a) verbal warning or b) written citation. Serious violations of the rules (i.e. use of alcohol or drugs, physical violence, possession and/or use of a firearm or other weapons) will result in law enforcement being notified, immediate ejection from the fairgrounds, loss of privilege to sell in the Junior Livestock Auction, entries removed from the fairgrounds and loss of premiums. Exhibitors, their immediate family and agents thereof, who do not cooperate with security personnel or other Fair officials in all matters of policy, including but not limited to COVID procedures, parking, stall/pen/space assignments and judging, will have their entries cancelled and will be ordered to remove their exhibits from the grounds immediately and forfeit all awards, premium monies and sale proceeds. All parties involved will not be allowed back on the fairgrounds for the remainder of that fair year. Failure to adhere to this rule will result in being banned from the Glenn County Fair. Exhibitors, their immediate family, or agents thereof, causing public disturbance, those that are uncooperative and/or unsportsmanlike, those not following good animal welfare practices as determined by management, or those found in violation of rules or in practices inadmissible with the Fair program and/or policies/procedures shall be penalized. Penalties shall include forfeiture of awards, premium monies, and sale proceeds. Fair Management reserves the right to cancel entries, cash awards, and request the removal of exhibits from the grounds where exhibitors are disorderly, immoral, unethical and/or endangering or disturbing the public, staff and/or other exhibitors.
- 11) EXHIBITORS GUIDEBOOK AND FORMS are online at www.glenncountyfair.org; or at the Glenn County Fair, 221 E Yolo Street, Orland, CA 95963.
- 12) BEST OF SHOW: The selection of Best in Show does not qualify the exhibit for participation at the California State Fair. The state has discontinued Best of Show participation by counties. Best of Shows will be awarded according to the leisure of the judge and are not mandatory to be awarded even if state in the exhibitor guidebook.
- 13) All exhibits that are entered for competition or display on the fairgrounds shall be subject to the control of the Association, which will exercise great care and precaution for its safe preservation, but Glenn County Fair is not responsible for any theft loss or damage to the exhibits. If exhibitors desire protection against loss or damage or injury from fire or other causes, they must make their own arrangements.

General Rules and Regulations

- 14) Entries close and must be submitted online by: April 18, 2023, at 5:00 P.M.
- 15) No Refunds will be issued.
- 16) Unless otherwise stated for each division, entries are open to Butte, Glenn, Colusa & Tehama Counties.
- 17) JUDGING: The official placings are those designated on the judging sheets. Cash awards are paid only in accordance with the results recorded on judge's sheets. Tags, ribbons, etc., have no value as to payment of awards. Decisions of the Judges are final and cannot be protested. Judging will not be delayed in any case for late exhibitors. Judging schedules may be changed by the management. No one (parent, leader, advisor or relative of exhibitor) may interfere with judging sheets or judge's decisions. If this occurs the exhibitor will be disqualified and asked to leave the fair without premiums or awards. They will not be able to exhibit/show in the 2024 fair.
- 18) Exhibitors and parents/guardians MUST sign "Release & Waiver of Liability Agreement" provided on the Glenn County fair website www.glenncountyfair.org, and in the back of the livestock exhibitor guidebook, furthermore, all exhibitors agree to the terms listed upon completing their online entries.
- 19) PREMIUM PAYMENTS: All single premium awards will be paid in check form and available to be picked up by the winner within two weeks of the fair. All payments not picked up by end of June will be forfeited back to the fair.
- 20) INDEPENDENT RECORD BOOKS can be found on fair website or in fair office and are due Tuesday, May 9, 2023, in the fair office.
- 21) PASS POLICY FOR LIVESTOCK EXHIBITORS: Youth exhibitors shall receive one (1) exhibitor pass per exhibitor, provided with their entry. Parents of Livestock exhibitors only, may purchase additional season passes for $35 each (Restrictions and limits apply). No passes will be given or sold to non-exhibitors or non-entry fee paying livestock exhibitors. Additional passes need to be purchased by Monday, May 15, 2023, in the fair office building. Feeding passes will be issued to Leaders and Advisors Only prior to and during the fair. Vehicles MUST be removed from the grounds by 8:00 a.m. daily.
- 22) LIVESTOCK EXHIBITS IN PLACE: All animals must be on grounds Tuesday of fair week by 4:00 PM. Please review livestock schedule.
- 23) PEN ASSIGNMENTS: Pen Assignments will be made by the Livestock Superintendent and no changes in assignments are allowed without the approval of the Livestock Superintendent. No pen reservations will be accepted. All stalls and pens must be cleaned before 9:00 a.m. each day. All pens must be cleaned out on Sunday of Fair
- 24) CONTROL OF ANIMALS: The junior livestock exhibitor is expected to be able to lead and show their own animal without assistance. In the event the animal gets away from the exhibitor more than 3 times in the show ring, the judge or livestock superintendent reserves the right to dismiss them. Junior exhibitors can receive active assistance from parents or advisors in leading animals to and from show rings or wash racks for safety purposes, or if they need to take more than 1 animal to an area at the same time as long as the junior exhibitor is present. Exhibitors must have control of their animals when leading them to and from the show area and on the fairgrounds at all times to keep other exhibitors and the public safe. Muzzling of animals is prohibited. Unruly Animals - For public safety, management may disqualify any animal deemed unsafe. If an animal is disqualified it will be required to leave the fairgrounds immediately.
- 25) FITTING: Junior exhibitors are required to fit/groom their own animal(s). Parents, legal guardians and/or 4-H, FFA advisors, and Grange Masters, may give verbal guidance and/or active assistance to the engaged exhibitor as they are fitting their animal(s) for the express intent to learn. Other Glenn County Fair exhibitors may provide active assistance to the exhibitor with the intent to learn from their peers. No fitting will be allowed after 10:00 p.m. and before 6:00 a.m.
- 26) ANIMAL HEALTH: Animals will arrive on designated days. Upon arrival the entered animal will receive a health check and if the animal passes the health check, then it will proceed to the scale to be weighed, if the animal measures at the required weight, it is then placed in an assigned pen. If an animal fails, the health check it will vacate the premises. NO animal will be penned that does not pass the health check or make the weight requirements. Animals must be removed from the Fairgrounds and awards withheld if they have an unsightly condition that renders them unsatisfactory to be on display to the public (i.e., prolapse, abscess, injury, foot rot, etc.) or a suspected contagious condition transmittable to other animals or humans (i.e., ringworm, club lamb fungus, etc.). An animal must be removed from the fairgrounds if it requires medical attention. For drug residue issues: Refer to state rules as listed in rule 6 above. The livestock superintendent may consult with a veterinarian before the exhibitor will be asked to remove the animal. Animals leaving fairgrounds must have a signed release form from the livestock superintendent.
- 27) CODE OF CONDUCT: By submitting your entries online, the exhibitor acknowledges that he or she has read, understands, and will abide by the rules and conditions contained in the code of conduct listed in this exhibitor guidebook.
- 28) FOR SALE SIGNS: NO "For Sale" signs may be posted. Advertising or Sponsorship signs of any kind are not permitted in the barns area, on pens, or stalls. If any advertisements or sponsorship signs are displayed they will be removed by management and the exhibitor is subject to further penalties by the Glenn County Fair management.

General Rules and Regulations

- 29) INSURANCE: County, District and State Fairs cannot legally carry liability insurance covering Jr. Exhibitors and/or their entries. Liability insurance is the responsibility, and at the discretion of the Jr. Exhibitor. Please review rule 68 for further information on liability insurance.
- 30) MILK TANK ASSESSMENT: A charge of $10.00 will be assessed for each cow milked to help defray the cost of maintaining the milk tank. The fee will be deducted from milk tank payment. Payment is only applicable if milk is sold.
- 31) ENTRIES: It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to ensure entries are complete and correct and submitted on time. All entries are done online at glenncountyfair.org. Late entries will not be accepted.
- 32) OVERCROWDING POLICY: Glenn County Residents and members of the Glenn County 4-H and/or FFA Chapter or Independent exhibitor have the right to all pens and cages first, if there is overcrowding the following steps will be implemented:
- Livestock superintendents have the right to assign pens based on space available
 - Tack pens will be eliminated
 - All out of county exhibitors will be limited to 2 animals (head)
 - The Glenn County Residents will be limited to 2 breeding animals (head)
- 33) WEIGH IN: For exact weigh-in times please refer to the livestock schedule. Animals failing to meet lower weight limits may be entered in feeder classes and shown in species showmanship classes. Market animals will be divided into classes by the Livestock Superintendent after weigh in. No excessive water or foreign material will be allowed on the animal at the time of weigh-in. The decision of the weigh master doing the weighing shall be final in terms of what constitutes "excessive" or "foreign".
- 34) RE-WEIGHS: If a weight is contested:
- The animal shall be removed from the scale immediately.
 - The scale will be rebalanced.
 - The animal will be reweighed after the scale is balanced.
 - No reweigh will be allowed after an animal has left the scale area or another animal has been weighed.
 - Only one reweigh per animal is allowed.
 - Second weight is the official weight.
- 35) EXHIBITING: Each exhibit must be the bona fide property of the exhibitor and must be included in his/her current year's project work. All exhibitors must own Market Beef for 120 days, and Market Sheep, Swine, and Goats 60 days prior to the opening day of fair. Chickens, Rabbits & Turkeys must be owned 30 days prior to opening day of the fair, and all breeding animals 60 days. All market animal exhibitors must exhibit their own animals and sell their own animals through the Jr. Livestock Auction and must be dressed in official uniform (See Uniform Requirement for further info). If an exhibitor has two animals in the same class, they must have another exhibitor in uniform show the additional animal. Exceptions to this rule can be made only by permission of the Livestock Superintendent and Fair Manager upon written request from the exhibitor stating the reason for the absence. In the event of a request for an exception a letter is to be presented to the Fair CEO the Monday prior to the opening of the Fair (Monday of Fair Week).
- 36) BRAND INSPECTION: TWO yellow transportation slips will be required at fair time weigh in for beef. One is for the exhibitor to consign the steer to the Fair, and one is from the seller to the exhibitor. If the animal comes from the exhibitor's cow, a signed statement must be included with the transport slips, stating this is the case.
- 37) ELIGIBILITY AND AGE REQUIREMENTS:
- STILLS: Exhibitors projects in the stills are only eligible for entry into the fair if they have not been entered into previous fairs and must have been created from the end of the previous years fair to the opening of the current year fair, unless otherwise stated in the exhibitor guidebook. Adults (individuals over the age of 19 that are no longer registered in high school) are only eligible for Adult Divisions and classes. Entry into the wrong division and classes can result in a disqualification from the fair. The Fair reserves the right to move entries to a more appropriate division or remove the entry from the competition.
 - 4-H MEMBERS may exhibit only in 4-H classes they are eligible for. Only those 4-H members at least 9 years old by December 31, 2022, may exhibit and sell animals at the Jr. Livestock Auction. Primary members, ages 5-8 years old by December 31, 2022, may exhibit only and may not participate in competitive showmanship classes as a 4-H member. This includes competitive classes also identified as "pee wee" showmanship events. Glenn County 4-H members must have been officially enrolled in 4-H projects and be a member in good standing as specified by 4-H Council Fair Requirements. Members must have owned their projects 120 days for Beef, Beef Replacement Heifers owned by November 14, of the previous year, 60 days for Sheep, Swine, Goats, and 30 days for Poultry, Rabbits; and completed requirements as stated in the Market Animal Report. All 4-H exhibitors must wear proper California 4-H dress for show. Official 4-H Fair Dress Guidelines can be found at <https://ucanr.edu/sites/UC4-H/files/216262.pdf>

- c. FFA LIVESTOCK MEMBERS: must wear the official FFA uniform. NO hats permitted. FFA members may participate when they enroll in high school vocational agricultural classes and may exhibit as members up to one year following graduation.
 - d. INDEPENDENT JUNIOR: Independent exhibitors not affiliated with 4-H or active in the FFA organizations can enter appropriate 4-H or FFA classes.
 - i. They must be at least 9 years old or in the 4th Grade by December 31, 2022. Exhibitors who are under 9 years of age as of December 31, 2022, are not eligible to compete in large animal competitions at California Fairs. Exhibitors are eligible to compete/exhibit through December 31 of the year in which they turn 19 years of age.
 - ii. Independent Jr. Exhibitors must not have been in Junior 4-H, Grange or FFA organization within 120 days for beef, 60 days for all other livestock and 30 days for rabbits/poultry.
 - iii. Exhibitors must wear white shirt and dark jeans, no hats or ties.
 - iv. Sale checks will be available 5 days following the fair in the fair office with all requirements met and a thank you card written with a stamped envelope. All independent junior exhibitors' projects are required to be supervised by an adult throughout the course of the project.
 - v. All Independent Junior exhibitors are required to maintain a record book of their project from the beginning and keep it current throughout the duration of the project. Record books are available at glenncountyfair.org and are due to be turned in Tuesday, May 9, 2023 by 5:00 PM.
 - e. GRANGE YOUTH is a sanctioned body of California State Grange, made up of young people from the age of 5 through 19 years old. The members of the "Grange Youth" participate voluntarily in a non-formal program designed to increase their confidence, strengthen their character and learn the importance of self-discipline while enjoying fellowship of other young men and women. The projects displayed are the results of their efforts under the supervision of volunteer leaders and grange masters. California Grange Youth shall be considered Independent Juniors for livestock, dairy, small animals, and still exhibits. Exhibitors must wear proper California Grange competition uniform.
- 38) EAR TAGS: All market swine, lambs, and goats must be ear tagged with the official fair tag 60 days prior to fair by the 4-H project leader, FFA advisor grange master, or independent exhibitor adult project supervisor and witness. Tags are recommended to be placed in the right ear unless another tag is already located in that ear, then the tag may be placed in the left ear. Beef must be tagged 120 days prior to fair. This is a mandatory tagging for all beef exhibitors. Market swine, lambs, goats and beef must be officially weighed on a scale 60 or 120 days before the fair to be entered in the Rate of Gain Contest. Exhibitors may only tag two market animals per species, only 2 market animals may weigh in at fair. Ear tag numbers must be entered on the fair entry form. Lost ear tags may be replaced upon request to the Fair CEO by the exhibitor and must be replaced prior to fair weigh-in and may only be replaced up until 30 days before fair by leader or advisor. After 30 days, notify the Fair, however, an ear tag will be replaced by Livestock Superintendent at scales. Shared family animal must be tagged according to tagging guidelines, must be declared to a family at the time of tagging, and paid for with fair entry. Scrapie Tag replacement do not apply in this rule. Any animal without a Scrapie Tag or incorrect Scrapie Tag will be sifted and must be taken off grounds. Market Lamb and Market Goat exhibitors must have scrapie tags in animal's ear before entering the fairgrounds, NO EXCEPTIONS!
- 39) SELLING: To sell an animal at the Glenn County Fair you must be a verified resident and/or student enrolled in a Glenn County School or the Glenn County 4-H Program. If you are NOT a Glenn County Resident but participate in a Glenn County program, you must submit a letter of intent to sell to the fair office prior to fair entry deadline. You must provide proof of insurance and daily supervision by an advisor or guardian. Exhibitors will be disqualified only if they have sold animals at another fair's Jr. Livestock Auction in the same calendar year.
- 40) LIVESTOCK ELIGIBILITY: All animals eligible for the sale must have been shown as individuals in their respective market classes. Beef, lambs, goats and swine grading as market ready, as required, may sell. All turkeys, fryer rabbits and poultry pens of three, which make weight and grade, may sell. Market animals will be sold by species from highest placing to lowest placing, except for market hogs which will be sold from lowest placing to highest placing
- 41) AUCTION TARGET WEIGHTS: Sheep 110-150 lbs., Swine 215-280 lbs., Beef 1100-1400 lbs., Goats 60-105 lbs., Turkeys 20-40 lbs., Pen of 3 Chickens 3-6 lbs. each, Pen of 3 rabbits 3 -5 ½ lbs. each. No animal under minimum weight will be allowed to sell. Animals exceeding maximum upper weight limits will not be eliminated from the sale, but sellers will be paid to the upper weight limit (Sheep 150 pounds, Swine 280 pounds, Beef 1400 pounds, Goats 105 pounds). Poultry, Turkeys and Rabbits will not be permitted to sell in the auction if they exceed the maximum weight listed.
- 42) EXHIBITOR LIMIT RULE: Exhibitors are limited to two market entries per exhibitor: two large animals or two small animals, or one large and one small. Large animals are beef, sheep, goats and swine. Small animals are rabbits, chickens and turkeys. Exhibitors will be limited to one market animal or pen to be sold through the Junior Livestock Auction and one beef replacement heifer and dairy replacement heifer. If one exhibitor has more than one animal selected as a species champion, the exhibitor must sell both animals

- 43) CHAMPIONS: All champion and reserve champions must sell in the sale of champions, the Sale of Champions is a terminal sale, no live pick up will be permitted. The winners of Grand Champion and Reserve Grand Champion must have their animals in place at the Champion Row by 7:00 AM on Saturday of the Auction.
- 44) TATTOOS: All champion animals and all market swine to be sold will be tattooed, excluding poultry and turkeys. (Prior to auction.)
- 45) DECLARATION: It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to tell the livestock superintendent immediately after the species show which animal the exhibitor wishes to sell if two animals qualify for the sale. If a declaration is not made by the exhibitor, the highest placing animal will be selected to sell in the auction. All animals which are not to be sold in the sale must be removed from the fairgrounds between 7:00 a.m. and 9:00 a.m. Friday, of fair week.
- 46) PICTURES: All exhibitors participating in the sale must have their picture taken with their market animal immediately following their market class, for the buyer's appreciation placard. Immediately following the sale of each animal, every exhibitor must present the buyer appreciation placard to the buyer. Exhibitors who do not take a photo may be disqualified or fined, penalty determined by Livestock Supervisor and Fair Manager.
- 47) EXHIBITING AT THE AUCTION: All market animal exhibitors must exhibit their own market animals at the Junior Livestock Auction in the proper order and dressed in their official uniform. Exception to this rule can be made only by permission of the fair manager and the livestock superintendent upon written request from the exhibitor stating the reason for the absence. Letter is to be presented to the Fair CEO before animals come to fair on Tuesday, of fair week.
- 48) RESPONSIBILITY AFTER: Immediately following the sale of the animal, it must be properly stalled and cared for until the animals are picked up or released. Failure to do so will prevent the exhibitor from showing or selling in the 2024 Junior Livestock Auction.
- 49) SELLING FEES: All exhibitors selling animals at the auction will be assessed a commission of 7% on swine, sheep, goats, turkeys, pens of poultry and rabbits. A 4.5% commission will be assessed on beef and silent auction items for maintaining and defraying the auction expenses. Selling fees may be adjusted up or down to maintain the JLC Reserve.
- 50) SUBSTITUTION: No one may substitute an animal after the sale, nor can they purchase an animal from an auction buyer which has been designated for resale or slaughter. The buyer must have originally designated at sale time that the animal was to be "picked up live" and the resale must take place after the animal has been removed from the fairgrounds.
- 51) DEATH OF AN ANIMAL: Should your market animal die after tagging and 30 days prior to the fair you must submit a written request to replace the animal before the fair weigh-in to the Fair Office. A veterinary certificate stating the cause of death must accompany the request. There will be no replacements made within 30 days of the fair, except for rabbit and poultry pens which may be replaced until 15 days before opening day of the fair.
- 52) EXHIBITOR LOANS: Junior livestock market animal exhibitors who have secured a loan for the purchase of their animal(s) may have the proceeds of the sale of their animal withheld and paid directly to the lending agency as may be provided for in their loan agreement with that lending agency fund or other loan agreement. After satisfying any outstanding loan balances as specified in the loan agreement, the lending agency, fund or other entity will distribute the remainder of the proceeds to the market animal exhibitor. Sale proceeds so withheld must be requested in advance of the sale with appropriate documentation by the lending agency.
- 53) DECORATIONS: No extra adornment or decoration is to be put on any animal during the fair and auction unless provided by the fair; this includes but is not limited to glitter and confetti. All barn décor should remain in place until Livestock Release Time.
- 54) AG MECHANICS: Up to 100 lots from vocational education dept. Ag. Mechanics will sell in a silent auction format on Saturday during the Junior Livestock Auction. Only blue-ribbon winners will sell. If more than 100 lots are submitted each exhibitor may be limited to selling only one item, the best of show and best of division projects may sell at live auction during the sale of champion.
- 55) EXHIBITOR ACKNOWLEDGEMENT: By entering, exhibitor acknowledges responsibility in the event their animal is found to contain volatile drug residues or is deemed unfit for human consumption at processing. Adulterated carcasses or those deemed unfit for human consumption by USDA Food Safety Inspection Services (FSIS) personnel at processing, are the sole responsibility of the seller. If animals fail to pass ante-mortem inspection, or their carcasses are determined to be diseased or adulterated at processing, exhibitors shall be liable for financial restitution, attorney's fees and Civil penalties. Exhibitors may also be subject to disciplinary measures administered by the Glenn County Fair, including but not limited to the cancellation of sale transactions and/or reimbursement to buyer.
- 56) FAMILY BACK UP ANIMALS: must be pre-entered under the families last name with the children's names listed in parenthesis. If the animal crosses the scale at fair, the family will designate which child is exhibiting the animal at that time and the animal will proceed through show and sale under that exhibitor only. Back up animals must be entered separately and on a paper entry form located in the back of this book. It is due by entry close date prior to 5:00 pm at the Fair Office.

- 57) ALCOHOL POLICY: The following are the procedures that the Glenn County Fair will follow to minimize any alcohol-related problems:
- We will not allow alcohol to be brought onto the fair grounds. No ice chest, six packs, bottles or cans of any kind will be allowed on the grounds.
 - No drinking in parking lots.
 - No Adult exhibitor will be allowed to consume alcohol while on duty or in their exhibit area.
 - ZERO tolerance of minors in possession of alcohol, or under the influence of alcohol. Minors exhibiting at the fair will have their exhibit removed from any competition and sale and will be stripped of all awards.
 - No alcohol is permitted at any time in the barns area or tack areas and no cans or bottles of alcohol are allowed in the barns area or in the fairgrounds at any time.
- 58) LOAD OUT POLICY: No animals and or trailers may be removed from the barns or leave the Glenn County Fairgrounds prior to 4:00 p.m., Sunday, May 21, 2023. The 4:00 p.m. release time may be changed at the discretion of Fair Management only. Any exhibitor found violating this rule will forfeit his/her award money and awards and will not be eligible to exhibit at the 2024 Glenn County Fair Exhibitors are responsible for the final clean-up of their pen, cage or stall, after the animal has been removed from the fairgrounds, at the conclusion of the fair (exception market swine sold through the Auction, due to load out schedule) Failure of an exhibitor to clean their pen will result in a $100 deduction from exhibitors check.
- 59) NEW! BARN REQUIREMENTS (PER STATE FIRE MARSHALL): If a pop-up tent is used for fitting the day of the show it cannot block any aisle or access to the barns, it must conform to State Fire code which requires it to be 20' away from a structure and it needs to be removed immediately following the show. No pop-ups are allowed around the show rings. We reserve the right to remove any pop-up before and during the fair. There is no cooking allowed in tent/canopies (this includes hot plates, crock pots and anything with a heating element). No Generators will be allowed to operate within the livestock barns. All generators must be operated outside the BARN and must be stored out of site when not in use. There is a $25 charge per generator permit obtained from the Glenn County Fair. Subject to change by the CA State Fire Marshal. No gas cans are permitted inside the livestock barns.
- 60) BARN CURFEW: there will be a 10 p.m. to 5 a.m. CURFEW in the barn. No one will be allowed in the barn area between these hours except Authorized Fair Staff and Security. No one is allowed to sleep in the barns.
- 61) BREEDING ANIMALS: All registered breeding animals must be able to provide registration papers, and animals must have proper identification ie: tattoo, ear tag, etc. These registration papers must be checked by the livestock office on or before 5 p.m. on Tuesday, May 16, 2023. All breeding animals must be checked in with the livestock office.
- 62) SMALL ANIMALS: All small market animals (chickens, rabbits & turkeys) that are sold at the auction must be cared for by the seller until the animal is picked up on Sunday evening by the processor.
- 63) MEDICAL RELEASE FORM: Signature on entry form and Drug form signifies compliance with all manufacturer and veterinarian pharmaceutical, biologic, and chemical instructions, and withdrawal regulations, and that all off-label treatments to market animals have been administered lawfully in accordance with a prescription from a California licensed veterinarian, whose statement under penalty of perjury notes dosage, date, and purpose for administration. All Market Animals are subject to inspection and random drug testing for Drug Residue by the processors.
- 64) YQCA: Youth for the Quality Care of Animals (YQCA) is a State-wide required training for anyone entering livestock in a 2023 California Fair. Proof of course completion must be completed by the Glenn County Fair by the entry deadline. You will not be allowed to participate in the 2023 Glenn County Fair if you do not complete the course and submit proof with entries by deadline. Training course can be found at <https://yqcaprogram.org/>.
- 65) LIABILITY: The 42nd District Agricultural Association cannot legally carry liability insurance covering junior exhibitors and/or their exhibits. Liability insurance is the responsibility of the junior exhibitor. Insurance coverage is available through CFSA and can be purchased at the Glenn County Fair office. All independent exhibitors are required to purchase coverage.
- 66) UNIFORM REQUIREMENTS
- The official competition uniform of the Glenn County Fair Livestock Department for members of 4-H and Independent Juniors shall consist of: new appearing blue jeans and/or white long pants; white sleeved (long or short) shirt with collar. In addition to the official competition uniform as stated above 4-H has additional requirements as stated below: 4-H Club exhibitors are expected to wear the 4-H tie or scarf and the 4-H Hat branded with the UC ANR and the 4-H clover logo (youth may wear current green hat with only the 4-H clover logo and/or white hat for the remainder of their 4-H career) Poultry and Rabbit exhibitors are to wear long-sleeved shirts.
 - The recognized FFA show uniform to be worn by all FFA exhibitors and by helpers in individual and chapter groups while showing at fairs and livestock shows shall consist of white pants, white shirt (short or long sleeved) with the FFA emblem attached to the left pocket, and the official FFA blue necktie for boys or FFA blue scarf for girls. The official FFA jacket is optional; if worn, the shirt emblem is not required. Hats or headgear of any kind shall not be worn with the official show uniform while showing. Poultry and Rabbit exhibitors are to wear long-sleeved shirts or FFA Jacket (The official competition uniform of the Grange Fair Program shall consist of dark blue denim pants; white sleeved, button-front dress shirt with collar; the official red waist vest with National Grange emblem on the back. Poultry and Rabbit exhibitors are to wear long-sleeved shirts.

- 67) FOR SAFETY REASONS: ALL exhibitors must wear closed-toed shoes with an enclosed heel while working with livestock.
- 68) All State Rules apply. Link available at www.glenncountyfair.org under fair information.

CATTLE HEALTH RULES

Cattle Entries from California

- 1) All female dairy cattle four (4) months of age and over must bear evidence of official calfhood vaccination against brucellosis with a legible, official tattoo visible in the right ear.
- 2) All dairy cattle, all beef bulls 18 months of age and over, and non-virgin beef bulls less than 18 months of age changing ownership require an official identification ear tag.
- 3) Acceptable methods for official identification of cattle include:
 - a. Official USDA individual identification ear tags: i. National Uniform Ear tagging System (NUES) ear tags:
 1. USDA metal brucellosis calfhood vaccination (orange) ear tags for females
 2. USDA metal "silver brite" ear tags
 3. Animal Identification Number (AIN) ear tag (15 digits long, must begin with 840, usually Radio Frequency Identification Devices [RFID])
 - b. Breed registration tattoos.
- 4) It is unlawful to remove official identification ear tags. Requests to remove an official identification ear tag must be submitted to CDFA, AHFSS in writing at least 72 hours prior to the need to remove the ear tag. The request must include a photo of the ear tag, the reason the ear tag must be removed, and all other official ear tags on the animal.

SHEEP AND GOAT HEALTH RULES

Sheep and Goat Entries from California

- 1) All sheep and goats entering fairs require official individual identification that must be kept on the animals. Acceptable methods for official identification of sheep and goats include:
 - a. Official USDA individual identification ear tags Animal Identification Number (AIN) ear tags (commonly known as 840 tags, usually Radio Frequency Identification Devices) (RFID) Scrapie ear tags: either flock ID ear tags (flock ID number with individual animal number) or serial ear tags (alphanumeric combination for individual animal)
 - b. Legible registration tattoos in the ears (or tail-web of La Mancha goats) if accompanied by breed association registration papers. Breed associations that are approved by USDA to serve as official identification can be found at USDA's scrapie program website: (https://www.aphis.usda.gov/aphis/ourfocus/animalhealth/sa_animal_disease_information/sheep-goat/registrytattoos-as-official-id)
 - c. Electronic implants (microchips) when accompanied by registration papers and microchip scanner. Microchips must be ISO 11784/11785 compliant and contain 15 digits, beginning with 840.

SPECIAL AWARDS

1. $50 Prize for Best Overall Plant in Honor of Maria Lopez – sponsored by Lois Lyon
2. Premiums sponsored by The Friendly Garden Club

The Maria Lopez Award

The Maria Lopez award was created to keep Maria's memory alive and honor her dedication to the fair and garden club. Maria dedicated many hours volunteering at the fair as a record clerk for judges, setting up, watching the building, and even bringing food for the volunteers to enjoy. She was a Great Cook!

Maria's and her husband used to own a rose bush business, so she had a lot of knowledge of how to grow beautiful rose bushes. When asked, she would share her knowledge and clippings to her fellow gardeners.

Besides her dedication to the fair and garden club, Maria dedicated many years towards children. She was an aide and translator at Mill Street School. She was well respected and involved in the Hispanic community and used her position to advocate for the second language children.

Maria was a Great Asset to the Orland Community.

PREMIUMS OFFERED PER CLASS

1st - $5 2nd - $3 3rd - $1

GUIDELINES

- 1) All entries in these divisions must be home prepared and canned by the exhibitor.
- 2) Entries must have been prepared since the last day of the previous year's fair.
- 3) All products being considered for cash awards, which have not otherwise been eliminated, may be opened. The judge reserves the choice whether to taste any entries.
- 4) Approved canning jars specifically designed for home canning purposes must be used, including two-piece closures (lids and rings). No one-piece lids and NO MAYONNAISE JARS are allowed. Jars should be standard quart, pint or ½ pint. Fruit Leather should be one roll, in plastic wrap. Dehydrated foods should be presented in jars.

- 5) No Paraffin Seals. All canning must be in sealed jars and must be properly canned (open kettle or "inversion" methods of sealing will not be accepted).
- 6) Two identical jars should be entered: one for the judge to open and taste if desired and one to remain sealed for display at the Fair.
- 7) Jars must be correctly labeled on the lid with the following: Name of product, Processing Method (PC for pressure canning, BWB for boiling water bath canning, or SC for steam canning). Processing time (and pressure if applicable). Date processed.
- 8) Low-acid foods and vegetables must be canned using the pressure canning method. Low-acid fruit, such as figs, should be made more acid by adding lemon juice as described by the USDA National Center for Home Food Preservation (<https://nchfp.uga.edu>) ONLY high-acid food such as pickles, tomatoes, fruits, and acidified fruits may be processed with the boiling water bath canning or steam canning method.

JUDGING CRITERIA

SILENT AUCTION

FFA Students, who want to sell their school agricultural mechanics projects at the Glenn County Fair, can do so by participating in the Ag Mechanics Silent Auction. The auction takes place and runs concurrently and adjacent to the Jr. Livestock Auction.

Students, who want to sell their agriculture mechanics projects at the Silent Auction, must adhere to the following conditions:

- 1) Projects to be auctioned must have been entered in this year's FFA Shop Project Division contest and awarded a 1st place.
- 2) Students must declare their intent to sell their projects when the exhibitor enters the fair online. If the project does not receive a 1st place it will automatically not be in the auction.
- 3) All projects sold will be assessed an auction cost fee of 4.5%. Students selling projects are obligated to help with the auction activities during the hours of 8:00 am to 6:00 pm on selling day.
- 4) The Junior Livestock Auction will sell up to 100 lots from FFA Shop Projects Divisions in a silent auction format on Saturday of fair week, during Junior Livestock Auction. Only blue-ribbon winners will sell. If more than 100 lots are submitted each exhibitor may be limited to selling only one item, the best of show project may sell at live auction during the sale of champions.

- 5) Silent auction items are to be picked up not later than 30 days after close of auction, fair is not responsible for items. If Items are not picked up 90 days after the close of the fair on Sunday, they then become property of the Glenn County Fair.
- 6) Silent Auction will open at 9:00 a.m. and close at 3:00 p.m. on Saturday, May 20, 2023.
- 7) Failure to comply with the Silent Auction Rules will result in a student's ineligibility to participate in the auction.
