The historical building will be open both Friday and Saturday, 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. It is full of inventions, gadgets and memorabilia of rural life in the first 100 years of the county. Society members will serve as docents. Becki Cunningham, a member of the society's board of directors and a former student in a one-room country school, will host visitors in the restored "Bristol No. 7" schoolhouse on the fairgrounds, both Friday and Saturday, 2 p.m. to 6 p.m. Jerry Roberts and Chuck Offenburg, both veteran journalists and historical society members, will continue a 5-year tradition of leading "History Chats" on different topics of local interest on both Friday and Saturday, at 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. Questions and observations from audience members are welcome.
