

Gwinnett County Fair Free Admission Rules

The Gwinnett County Fair is committed to fair and consistent practices relative to gate admission. Admission to the Gwinnett County Fair requires a valid pass or employee ID with the following exceptions:

- Handicap Exception

Any person with a permanent disability either physical or other will be admitted free of charge. Any person confined to a wheelchair will be admitted free of charge for as long as they are confined to the wheelchair.

- Military Exception

Active and retired members of the military will be admitted free of charge. They must have a current active or retired military ID and/or be in uniform.

- Law Enforcement Exception

Law enforcement officers will be admitted free of charge. They must present an ID and badge to the ticket taker.

- Public Safety Exception

Fire Department personnel will be admitted free of charge. They must present an ID or be in uniform.

- Livestock Show Participants

Livestock show participants will receive gate passes or a hang down pass for the livestock entrance gate from the livestock committee. In the event parking becomes limited and participants are required to enter through walk-in gates they will receive a hand stamp at the livestock gate. Exceptions must be communicated to the gate committee before they arrive at any walk-in gate. Free admission to livestock shows is limited to the participant and two parents.