2025 INDIANA STATE FAIR QUEEN CROWNED

INDIANAPOLIS, IN – Pilar Bravo, Miss Marion County 2025, was crowned the 66th Miss Indiana State Fair on Sunday January 5, 2025, at the Indiana State Fairgrounds & Event Center inside the Corteva Coliseum.

Miss Indiana State Fair 2025 was selected from a field of over 80 contestants. The Indiana State Fair Queen plays a crucial role in representing the Indiana State Fair, embarking on a statewide journey of approximately 8,000 miles during June and July, visiting approximately 45 counties. This role serves as a vital State Fair ambassador, raising awareness and bringing the vision of the Indiana State Fair to life: to be recognized as the best State Fair in the country, showcasing agriculture and youth in an educational and entertaining environment.

This year's pageant featured a talented group of finalists, with the Queens Court Including:

- 1st Runner-Up: Jordyn Leiningner, Kosciusko County
- 2nd Runner-Up: Sophia Sullivan, Ripley County
- 3rd Runner-Up: Rebecca Brewer, Elkhart County
- 4th Runner-Up: Kelby Roberts, Rush County

Representatives from Morgan County, Shelby County, Vigo County, Wabash County, and Warren County also made it to the final round of ten.

The title of Miss Congeniality was awarded to Maggie Taylor from Cass County.

Miss Indiana State Fair 2025, Pilar Bravo's dedication to her community and her impressive achievements in academics, horse showing, and volunteer work make her a remarkable ambassador for the Indiana State Fair.

As she embarks on her journey as the 66th Indiana State Fair Queen, Pilar will undoubtedly inspire countless individuals across the state with her passion, leadership, and commitment to excellence. This victory is particularly significant as it marks the first time since 1981 that a contestant from Marion County has won the title. We look forward to seeing the positive impact she will make in her role, representing the best of Indiana's youth and agricultural heritage. Congratulations, Pilar!
