Five NEW Attractions Coming to the 2018 Indiana State Fair

July 10, 2018, INDIANAPOLIS, IN- The Indiana State Fair is full of traditions and memories for Hoosiers statewide, and this year Fair organizers are adding additional exciting features to enjoy. With a new interactive animal exhibit, a new roller coaster and popular Big Top Circus entertainers, you won't want to miss this year's Fair!

Fairgoers will get the chance to try out a new roller coaster, the BulletTrain. This thrilling ride climbs 33-feet high before launching riders into sharp turns and banking curves with fast transitions and drops.

Your Indiana State Fair ticket will also get you access to the Big Top Circus, presented by Bee Window. With three FREE shows daily at 1, 4 and 7 p.m. (no 1 p.m. show on Thursdays), you're sure to be spectacularly entertained. Headlined by Bello Nock, this is a WOW experience that you won't want to miss!

To complement the Big Top Circus, a "Celebrating Indiana's Circus History" exhibit will offer an interactive, educational experience based around the circus. The exhibit is offered free-of-charge.

Animal Town, presented by Indiana Farm Bureau, allows fairgoers to learn about their favorite barn yard animals. Animal Town is an interactive exhibit featuring several species of animals every day of the fair from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., including beef and dairy cattle, chickens, goats, draft horses, llamas, rabbits, sheep and swine. This educational opportunity allows fairgoers the chance to see all of their favorite animals in one interactive setting. Animal Town is located at the east end of the Hoosier Lottery Grandstand.

Also new to the 2018 fair is an appearance by world-champion competitive food eater Joey Chestnut. Chestnut will attempt to break the record for the World's Ice Cream Eating Championship held at the Fair on August 5 at 2 p.m. At last year's fair, the world record was broken by Miki Sudo.
