

How Weather Affects Farmers

The way farmers are able to grow crops and take care of livestock are important for us to get the food we eat. Weather plays an important role in how farmers are able to do their jobs. Use the word bank below to fill in the ways weather throughout the year affect farmers and food.

Farmers need _____ for their crops to grow, or for grass to grow to feed their animals.

_____ (no rain) means no crops or hungry animals.

Too much rain or snow may destroy _____ and mean that farmers cannot make profits.

The best weather for farmers is _____, showers and gentle wind.

Word bank:

Crops

Rain

Sun

Drought