July 20, 2021 INDIANAPOLIS, IN - Calling all LEGO lovers! NEW to the 2021 Indiana State Fair, “City of Bricks” is an award-winning, interactive experience featuring Sean Kenney’s Wild Connections Made with LEGO® Bricks located in the State Fair’s Harvest Pavilion. The “City of Bricks” experience will be offered free-of-charge with paid fair admission throughout the State Fair, July 30-August 22 (the fair is CLOSED Mondays and Tuesdays).

CITY OF BRICKS, featuring Sean Kenney’s Wild Connections Made with LEGO Bricks

Produced by Imagine Exhibitions, this incredible collection offers larger-than-life, nature-inspired sculptures and creations made entirely from LEGO Bricks. This engaging experience is perfect for brick builders of all ages and is an award-winning exhibition that uses beautiful works art made from simply toy blocks to explore animal endangerment, the balance of the ecosystems and mankind’s relationship with nature.

The narratives, along with the intricate displays, also explore the importance of conservation, the balance of ecosystems, predator/prey relationships, as well as the relationships between humankind and the natural world. Most importantly, the exhibition allows visitors to appreciate both nature and the sculptures as something beautiful, and to inspire them to go home and create something beautiful themselves.

“City of Bricks” at the Indiana State Fair also features the State Fair Cinema – an indoor movie theater where you can wind down and watch a variety of movies from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. every day during the fair. This new attraction also includes a hands-on experience where kids can build their own creations! Check out “City of Bricks” and explore the beauty and wonder of this inspiring exhibit throughout the fair.
