

Spring Weather Writing Prompts

Below are some topics about spring weather you can write about. Be creative and use your imagination when writing about some of these subjects.

- What kind of weather is the first indication to you that it is springtime?
- Indiana can experience all kinds of weather during the spring. Write about all the different weather we have seen this spring.
- What is something you can do in the spring that you cannot do during the winter?
- Write a story about a new flower blooming and experiencing spring for the first time.
- Unfortunately, spring can also bring severe weather. Write a plan for your family to keep you safe during a severe storm.
- April showers bring May flowers. What do May flowers bring? Why do you think so?
- What do you miss about winter once spring starts?
- What if the weather was like spring all year long?
- My favorite thing about warm weather is....
- What do you feel like when it snows in the springtime?
- Describe the perfect spring day. Include details about the weather and what you would do.
- Spring weather can affect all of your senses. Describe something about spring weather that you can taste, touch, smell, hear and see.

