Seeking applications for vacant Josephine County Fair Board seat

JOSEPHINE COUNTY, Ore. — Josephine County Board of Commissioners is seeking applications for 1 vacant seat on the Josephine County Fair Board. The Fair Board is made up of seven volunteers that serve 3-year term and meet monthly. The Fair Board is a governing body charged with the oversight of the annual County Fair and year-round management of the Josephine County Fairgrounds.

“We have a hard working, dedicated Fair Board that are a vital part of our Fair team and success” Tamra Martin, Recreation Director stated, “the right candidate will be ready to roll up their sleeves and jump right in and right away realize that they are part of a working team.”

The annual County Fair is a time-honored tradition that brings the community together for education and entertainment and 2025 will serve as the 111th Josephine County Fair. In addition to the planning and execution of the Fair, the Fair Board manages the daily activities and future development of the fairgrounds.

Interested candidates must reside in Josephine County and can apply online at www.josephinecounty.gov under the Committee and Advisory Board tab or use the link Advisory Committee Application for Board Appointment.
