

William F. Taylor Community Service Award 2022

The William F. Taylor Community Service Award will be a perpetual recognition given each year by the Kentucky Fair and Horse Show Association (KAFHS) to someone who expands their leadership from the county fairgrounds to Main Street. The award, presented during the annual KAFHS convention, will recognize an individual known not only for their importance to their county fair, but who has also expanded their leadership to include service to their community, county, state and even at national levels.

Each county fair may nominate one person for the community service award. Please return all information for this award to: Michael Poynter, 105 Sunset Drive, Hustonville, KY 40437 or email to: m\_poynter@yahoo.com. If you have any questions, please call or text Michael at (859) 749-2615.
