

2014-2015 Queen Callie Morgan

Howdy everyone! My name is Callie Morgan, your 2014-2015 Kendall County Fair & Rodeo Queen. I would like to welcome you to the 110th annual Kendall County Fair & Rodeo! What a privilege it has been to be a part of this wonderful association and become part of the fair's history. When I was crowned Queen, I was in awe. I could not believe I was given this wonderful opportunity. I felt honored to be able to represent the fairgrounds and our community. However, none of this would have happened without the generosity of so many people. I would first like to thank God, because without Him none of this would be possible. Thank you to my parents, Micah and Michele Morgan, for all of their help, patience and love. I would like to thank all of my family and friends who have always been there to support me. Thank you to the court parents who helped with decorating the float and making sure we made all of the parades. Thank you to my sponsor, Kendall County Cowboy Church, for your support during the pageant. Last but definitely not least, thank you to the Kendall County Fair Association. Your generous scholarships, monetary contributions for our wardrobe and support you give the Queen's Court is greatly appreciated. To the directors, without your dedication and numerous volunteer hours, we would not have a fair and rodeo each year. Without each of you, we would not be having our 110th fair and rodeo!

To the beautiful court I had the pleasure of reigning with - Kylie, Chloé and Claire. I am so happy I got to spend this year with you. It has passed extremely fast. Thank you for always being positive and for being an inspiration to our community. To the Queen's Court director, Alison Burkholder, thank you for your patience in trying to keep up with our crazy schedules!

To the young ladies of our community, I encourage you to participate in the pageant. I strive to continue to see our fair grow and see the youth involved. I wish this year's contestants the best of luck and hope to see everyone come "kick up your heels" at the Kendall County Fair with us!!
