

King County Fair

Junior Livestock Show 2023

The King County Fair Junior Livestock Show is made possible with support from many local and corporate sponsors. Being a sponsor means supporting youth who dedicate time and money in raising a project that are then sold to the highest bidder at a live auction the final day of the Fair. It also means supporting local farms, businesses, and the agricultural community. It showcases rural American life and provides a building block of our communities future.

How does the Junior Livestock Show benefit your community?

- Connects children with learning opportunities.
- Support agriculture
- Provide employment
- Provides a live and memorable experience
- Promotes Farming
- Preserves Agriculture era in our community
