2024 ART & CRAFT WAIVER OF RESPONSIBILITY
(You will agree to as part of your application)

All accepted entries will be required to agree to a Waiver of Responsibility. By applying you are stating that you agree to follow all policies as set out by the King William Fair and agree to the waiver which states:

“In consideration for being permitted to participate in the King William Fair, I hereby waive, release, and discharge any and all claims for damages for personal injury, death, or property damage which I may have, or which may hereafter accrue to me, as a result of participation in said activity. This release is intended to discharge in advance the King William Association and the Fiesta Commission (their officers, employees, and agents) from any and all liability arising out of or connected in any way with my participation in the King William Fair, even though that liability may arise out of negligence or carelessness on the part of the persons or entities mentioned above. It is understood that this activity involves an element of risk and danger of accidents and knowing those risks I hereby assume those risks. It is further agreed that this waiver, release and assumption or risk is to be binding on my heirs and assigns. I agree to indemnify and to hold the above persons or entities free and harmless from any loss, liability, damage, cost, or expense which they may incur as the result of my death or any injury or property damage that I may sustain while participating in said activity. I understand that the application fee is non-refundable, and that other fees are non-refundable after March 11, 2024, even if the King William Fair is canceled. I understand this is an outdoor show and the King William Fair will not accept any responsibility for goods damaged due to inclement weather. I agree that items I bring to the Fair will be handcrafted by me. I grant the King William Association full permission to use any photographs that may contain my likeness or booth space.”
