JUDGING TIMES

Thursday of Fair, 2:00 PM (Follows 4-H Goat judging)
Bloom Pavilion

OPEN GOAT RULES

1. All goats must be tagged with an official USDA Scrapie Eradication program assigned flock identification tag.
2. All goats must be registered in respective breed association. Have registration papers available on Wednesday at check-in. Tattoos must correspond to registration papers. Original registration papers must be shown for all animals over 6 months. Temporary and duplicate registrations are accepted for animals under 6 months, when needed.

3. All goats must be dehorned, disbudded or polled. Scurs must be trimmed to less than two inches.
4. All dairy goats must be clipped prior to check-in time, unless used for clipping demonstration at the Fair. Otherwise, clip and fit your animal to their breed association's standard.
5. Tattoos must be legible. Owner must provide microchip reader, if chipped.
6. All exhibitors must show proof of compliance with the scrapie identification program with a copy of your premise flock ID number through the USDA APHIS VS.
7. Each Exhibitor must verify the Division and Class they entered. Any errors need to be corrected with the superintendent(s) prior to the show. Judging sheet will be available the day before the open show.
8. Classes may be combined in show ring, within same Division, to expedite the judging time. Premiums will not be affected. Exhibitors will be notified of the show order and any changes in advance.
9. Entries may be limited due to number of pens available and space constraints.
