OPEN FINE ARTS RULES

1. The Superintendent/Director shall have the right to place item(s) into an appropriate or different Division if needed.
2. Superintendents/Director and/or Judges reserve the right to reject work based on size, fragility, inappropriate content or other rule infringements.
3. Only work designed and executed by the artist will be accepted. Work previously entered is ineligible for show.
4. Copies of other's work or work from commercial kits or forms are not eligible.
5. EXHIBITORS ARE LIMITED TO 3 ENTRIES PER CLASS.
6. Maximum-size paintings allowed is 3' by 4'.
7. For safety reasons the Superintendent/Director discourage the use of glass and heavy frames on all artwork.
8. For the safety of your artwork, we require that all framed, hanging artwork be fitted with screw eyes and wire that will effectively support the weight of the piece, as well as allow for flexibility in the use of different sized hooks on our peg board system. Saw-toothed hangers will not be accepted.
9. Flat art pieces that do not require a frame but still need to be hung for display, need to be mounted on a foam core backing and have a hanging tab that will support weight of piece.
10. All freestanding artwork must be stable enough to be placed on a shelf or on the floor depending on size of piece. Special displays must be provided by the exhibitor and approved by the Superintendent/Director.
11. ALL ARTWORK IS EXHIBITED AT OWNERS RISK.
12. Items will be judged by the Danish system. Each item judged on individual merit.
