Herdsmanship Rules

HERDSMANSHIP BY SPECIES

- Herdsmanship will be judged by species/departments, not individual clubs/chapters.
- Focus is on the importance of the entire barn appearance (stalls, alley, wash rack, fitting area, show ring, common area, etc.). The entire area needs to be well kept and presentable to the public at all times.
- Herdsmanship is also intended to be a friendly competition between the exhibitors in each species department.

AWARDS:

- One daily winner will be chosen each day (announced each evening) and a "daily winner" banner will be hung in that barn / department.
- At the end of fair, daily points will be tallied and one overall winning department / barn will be determined.
- Winning dept / barn will be honored with a "winners banner" to be hung up in their barn the following fair. Other award(s) TBD.

HOW IT WORKS:

- Superintendents will establish a schedule for their dept/barn.
- All exhibitors of each species will be assigned a time slot for each day to be on Herdsmanship duty. Each time slot will consist of 4-5 exhibitors and one supervising adult (exact numbers per shift will be determined by superintendent and may vary accordingly). Superintendents will work with exhibitors to accommodate schedules with other fair involvements and sports practice times. The superintendent of each dept/barn has discretion to make adjustments as they see fit.

- Herdsmanship Packets with a sign up schedule will be available for each Superintendent on Wednesday prior to weigh in or you can pick up a packet in the Fair Office.

JUDGING:

- There will be three judges. Each judge will evaluate each department / barn 1x each day. Judging times will vary by the day, by the judge and by the department / barn.
- The following is a general idea of what will be judged: Exhibitors / Herdsmen, Cleanliness / Care, Education, Areas (tack, fitting, wash rack, etc.).
- There will be 100 points possible for each judge to give / each day.

Showmanship Rules

1. All Exhibitors (Open, FFA, and 4-H) must enter Showmanship class for each species of animal being entered in a type or performance class.
2. All Showmanship Divisions are based on the age of the Exhibitor as of October 1 of the previous fair year.
3. All Exhibitors are required to show their own market animal in Showmanship Class to be eligible for Market Stock Sale.
4. All animals used for Showmanship must be owned or leased by Exhibitor and entered in a type (Performance, Games, Obedience, Open, Market, Or Breeding Stock) competition
5. As the emphasis is on the Exhibitor, not the animal, premium points are the same regardless of type, size, or value of animal involved. Premium points: Blue 50, Red 35, and White 25.
6. Grand Champion and Reserve Champion are chosen for each lot: Peewees, Cloverbuds (if applicable), First Year Junior Showman, Junior, Intermediate, and Senior. Premiums paid: Grand Champion $10 and Reserve Champion $8.
