GENERAL RULES, REGULATIONS AND INFORMATION FOR SHEEP & SWINE

1. All sheep & swine shown at the Lake County Fair Open Show will be subject to Indiana's health rules and regulations for sheep/swine shows.
2. Animals housed in Indiana are not required to have health papers. Animals housed out-of-state must have valid health papers (Certificate of Veterinary Inspection is valid for 30 days for out-of-state animals.) If there is a concern about the health or safety of a particular animal, the superintendent reserves the right to contact a veterinarian and/or release that animal to be transported off the fairgrounds.
3. All purebred animals entered for competition must be registered. Registration papers must be produced at any time if requested by Superintendent.

4. Animal's bedding must be furnished by the exhibitor. Please do keep the pens, barn and aisles neat and clean. Please clean your pens before you leave. THANK YOU.
5. All 4-Her's are welcome to enter the open shows, abiding by the rules and paying the required fees of the open shows.
6. Exhibitors will at all times be required to give the necessary attention to their animals.
7. Any exhibitor making a false or misleading statement, exhibiting animals that have been artificially fitted or treated, showing animals out of proper class, substituting one animal for another without proper correction of records at the Superintendent's office before entering the show ring, or for any other dishonorable practice shall forfeit all premiums.
8. Every precaution will be taken to properly protect animals and exhibits in this department. However, we will not be liable for the safety of animals, exhibits, exhibitors, employees, or families. Nor will we be liable for losses or damages sustained because of robbery, fire, weather, accidents or any other cause. Exhibitors wishing to insure themselves, their belongings or their livestock may do so at their own expense.
9. Maximum of 2 animals in each of the breeding classes: sheep. Maximum 3 market lambs per exhibitor.
10. The right is reserved by the Superintendent to amend or add to all the rules and regulations as the Fair Board of Directors in its judgement may recommend.
11. The Superintendent reserves the final and absolute right to interpret all rules and regulations, and will arbitrarily settle and determine all matters questions or differences in regard thereto or otherwise arising out of or in connection with the shows.
12. No Alcohol, illegal substances or weapons are allowed on the fairgrounds. No dogs allowed on the fairgrounds.
