

March 1 & 2, 2023

Pollinator Summit

Maintaining and Restoring Connections Between Plants, Pollinators, and People

TWO DAY POLLINATOR SUMMIT:

Wednesday March 1 • 10am-4pm & 6pm

Thursday March 2 • 10am-2pm & 7pm

In-person at the Latah County Fairgrounds Exhibit Hall. Event is FREE but please register, donations accepted.

Workshops: Mason Bee House Making • Pollinator Garden Design • Sign up to play “Pest Friends” a new, fun insect management game

Pollinator Expo: Wednesday March 1, 12-2pm. Meet up with local nonprofits and businesses helping pollinators

Keynote Speaker: Wednesday March 1, 6-7:30pm, Vandal Ballroom, Bruce Pitman Center
Keynote will be given by CALS Distinguished Speaker Neal Williams, Ph.D. from UC Davis

• Eventbrite Registration: <https://pollinatorsummit2023.eventbrite.com>

Multiple presenters will share the latest research on pollinators from University of Idaho and WSU. Hear about community efforts to create pollinator habitat.

Additional speakers (live & on Zoom) include:

Ronda Hyrnick, UI Extension Statewide Pesticide Educator

Anna Hawse, UI Graduate Student studying Palouse pollinators

Michael Parella, Dean, College of Agricultural and Life Sciences, UI

Steven Cook, Dept. Head of Entomology, Plant Pathology and Nematology

Kelsey King, WSU Entomology Graduate Student

CLOSING NIGHT POLLINATOR FILM:

Thursday March 2 • 7pm Doors open at 6:30pm. Come learn about pollinators on the big screen! Event is FREE but please register.

Kenworthy Performing Art Center, 508 S. Main Street, Moscow, ID

• Eventbrite Registration: <https://pollinatorsummit2023.eventbrite.com>

For more information: latah@uidaho.edu, 208-883-2267

