

Preparing Your Estate 101

When someone says “do you have an estate plan,” do you stop and freeze? This is an important part of planning for our financial lives yet many people are hesitant to start the process and it often falls on loved ones to make final decisions.

Extension to the rescue!

In this two-hour evening workshop, one of our local attorneys will come and answer all of your estate planning questions. The class is free; the information is invaluable.

Topics to be Covered Include:

- Estate Basics – Wills, Power of Attorney, & Living Will/Healthcare Directive
- Probate – What is it, How does it work, What is the process
- Trusts – Types of trusts
- Gifting – How to gift your property, taxes and when they apply, how to distribute gifts
- Plus so much more...

Both Idaho and Washington laws will be covered.

When: May 30, 2018 6:00 – 8:00 p.m.
Where: Latah County Fairgrounds Middle Room
1021 Harold Street, Moscow
Presenter: Ellis Eifert, Eifert Law Firm, PLLC
Cost: Free with Registration*
How Do I Register: Please contact Karen at krichel@uidaho.edu or 208-883-2241 before May 24th to reserve your spot and materials.

*We love offering our classes free-of-charge but there is a cost that is associated with them. To keep being able to do this, please call if you can't make it after registering. If you are not sure that you want to come and decide at the last minute, you are welcome to come without registration but we cannot guarantee that you will have a seat, a packet or a class to attend. These evening programs are based on adequate registration numbers and can be cancelled without them. Thanks for your kindness.
