SUMMARY OF PUBLIC COMMENT:

I would like to speak against the proposed anti-abortion ordinance being considered by the commission. This ordinance is a political stunt being pushed on our community by religious zealots from Texas. It has no legal standing and would open Lea County up to significant legal risks if passed.

The ordinance itself is based on an outdated law that has been ruled to only apply to items which are already themselves illegal. Abortion is not illegal, and in fact abortion medication is approved by the FDA. Therefore this ordinance will not get the results its supporters want.

However, it will open the county up to lawsuits should they pass and attempt to enforce the ordinance. The commission should not be pressured into political showboating and should focus on addressing meaningful issues within our community.

RESOLUTION NO. 22-JAN-016R
