

Lynnwood Connecting Business, Stay, Play, Shopping & More!

Lynnwood is situated in the heart of Washington's aerospace, high tech and biomedical corridor at convergence of I-5 and I-405, sixteen miles north of Seattle. With the opening of Paine Field this year and the completion of Sound Transit's Lynnwood Link Light Rail service in 2024, Lynnwood is the ideal destination for businesses, visitors, meetings, and conventions.

Lynnwood offers convenient access to a variety of amenities, including shopping at Alderwood mall, unique dining options, and convenient connections to the many attractions throughout the region. With over 1,400 hotel rooms, Lynnwood is a great place for visitors and business travelers to stay and experience the Puget Sound region.

The Lynnwood Convention Center, located in Lynnwood's City Center, hosts a variety of events including meetings, banquets, weddings, trade shows and multi-day conventions. What do all of these events have in common? People who are looking for quality, innovation, customer service, and excellence in a venue. The Lynnwood Convention Center is a modern facility with flexible space to meet the unique needs of each event.

Executive Chef, Michael Felsentein, provides in-house catering at the Lynnwood Convention Center. Chef Michael and his culinary team prepare seasonal menus with a focus on flavor using fresh local ingredients. Chef Michael has been with the Lynnwood Convention Center since its opening in 2005. He is a graduate of the Culinary Institute of America and has worked in five-star hotels in New Orleans and Chicago, and four-star restaurants in New York and Seattle. ♦
