Creating Connections Through Cohesive Wellness - Moving to Monthly #WellnessWednesday

With the advent of meetings being back and all of the preparations we have been working on for the past 6 months being put into place, we have decided to move our weekly e-blasts to a monthly format. Look for our latest menus, packages and protocols in your inbox on the first Wednesday of every month.

As always, we enjoy our collaborations with our clients and guests and look forward to continuing this dialogue. Please let us know how we can be a further resource as you get back to planning your in-person events.
