

Lynnwood Holiday Shopping

In Lynnwood, shopping can still be among the highlights of this holiday season. In fact, in this most unusual year this charming town just 16 miles north of Seattle may just be the ideal place to cross everyone you love off your list – safely.

What's to love about shopping this season in Lynnwood? Well, with shopping experiences that range from the eclectic to the traditional, a town-wide devotion to keeping everyone safe, and with Santa very much still coming to town, just about everything.

For more information, visit the Lynnwood Tourism Blog.

Snohomish County Holiday Shopping

They say the best gifts are ones you make yourself, but this season, it pays to support local makers. Visit Seattle Northcountry's Artisan Goods Shopping Guide for more information about local artisans.

Snohomish County has also launched SupportSnoCo.com to boost the economic health of local businesses. The site features businesses from across the County and encourages people to spend holiday dollars locally this year.

Let's bounce back together this holiday season!

Eating Local

We continue to highlight our local hotel partners with a spotlight on the Embassy Suites Seattle North/Lynnwood. In addition to their all suite hotel and meeting space, they also have a restaurant onsite. Cascades is currently open for to-go orders Monday through Friday from 5 pm-8 pm. Visit eatcascades.com to view the menu or call 425-775-2500 to order and take advantage of their special offer. Purchase an entrée and a beverage (beer, wine or cocktail) and receive a second drink for $1.

As always, the Lynnwood Convention Center's priority is our guests' health and safety. To acquaint yourself with the steps we are taking to ensure your safety, visit Our Commitment to Health and Safety

LYNNWOOD
CONVENTION
CENTER

A SPACE TO EXPERIENCE MORE

