

Holiday Parties are Back!

It might seem a bit premature to start thinking about the holidays when we're in the middle of summer, but with so many companies bringing people back to the office for the second half of 2021, now is the best time to plan your holiday party! This year, thank your team members with our festive, all-in-one holiday party packages that will make your event special. By locking down a date and time now, you'll have the rest of the summer to finalize details. View our holiday packages here and contact info@lynnwoodcc.com for help planning your event.

New Art Exhibit

Currently on display at the Lynnwood Convention Center is the newest primary art exhibit of over 35 pieces from the collection of Siegfried, an American Painter. Ranging in mediums from oil pastels on paper to acrylic and graphics on canvas, Siegfried constructs his frames from recycled cedar, stretches his own canvases and adds distressed paper, creating layered surfaces of texture and color.

The public is invited to view the exhibit free of charge during regular business hours, Monday - Friday from 8am-5pm, as well as in the evenings and weekends when the building is open for events.

New Reopening Guidelines

On June 30, Washington moved past the "Roadmap to Recovery" plan, so all businesses are now able to return to normal capacity and operations. What does this mean for the Convention Center? It means we're able to resume events as normal without the limitations of social distancing. Masking requirements for the state will continue to abide by guidelines established by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), which currently states that fully vaccinated people are no longer required to wear masks outdoors in crowds and in most indoor settings. Visit <https://www.doh.wa.gov/> for the most updated information in the state of Washington.
