Please consider your stallion's disposition prior to application. Stallions must tolerate large crowds, commotion, and being near other stallions. Exercise time and space is very limited. Stallions that are a safety hazard will be removed from show without a refund.

Due to limited space, only one stallion per breeding program will be accepted.

Each stallion will be provided a stall located inside the Montana Pavilion during MATE Show (location TBD for NILE). Initial bedding will be provided (straw is not allowed). Storage of hay inside building is NOT allowed. Display space will also be provided.

Stallions and displays must be in place and ready for public by 10:00 AM on Thursday and cannot be removed prior to 5:00 PM on Saturday.

Stallions will be previewed during the Gold Buckle Select Horse Sale Preview on Friday and prior to the sale on Saturday.

Each stallion will receive a full color, half page advertisement ($765 value) in the NILE Premier Magazine which includes the horse sale catalog, listing on the NILE website, PA mentions, and NILE promotion (including social media). Please send digital advertisement to bonnie@thenile.org. File type should be .pdf, .png, or .jpeg and the ad size must be 7.47" x4.75". If you need design help, please contact Bonnie. Artwork due July 1st.

The NILE, Metra Park, Yellowstone County, their employees, or volunteers will not be responsible for any injury or loss of any animal or accidents thereby or any injury or loss of life to any participants or spectators during the Stock Show.

All stallions must arrive with necessary travel paperwork required by the Montana Department of Livestock.
