Discussion was held on different ways to increase the money at the finals for contestants to win back without raising the costs of the fees to the families. Some different scenarios were discussed, and Annie will report back to the Board with options.

Paul Bottini brought up concerns with the jackpots being held at the finals. He asked if there was a better way to recoup some of the money back for NLBRA. He also had concerns that there was no curfew due to the jackpots running into the early hours of the morning.
