NORTHWESTERN MICHIGAN FAIR CODE OF CONDUCT

Participation in the Northwestern Michigan Fair are subject to the observance of the program rules

All Fair Attendees will:

1. Show respect for, and cooperate with, fellow attendees, volunteers & directors.
2. Follow Livestock Council policies & procedures when participating in any Livestock Council sponsored event
3. Under no circumstances, attend any activity or event on Northwestern Michigan Fair property under the influence of alcohol and/or controlled substances (including tobacco, electronic cigarettes, etc.)
4. Under no circumstances, bring dangerous or unauthorized materials (such as fireworks, explosives, weapons or similar items) to any event or activity that happens on the property of the Northwestern Michigan Fair.
5. Abstain from hazing, harassment or bullying of another participant, volunteer or staff member (either face-to- face interactions, through social media or other communication venues), particularly when the behavior is based on a person's appearance, race, color, national origin, gender identity, religion, height, weight, disability, political beliefs, sexual orientation, marital status, family status or veteran status or other protected category under Federal Anti-Discrimination Policy.
6. All physical altercations, youth or adult will be turned over to the Grand Traverse Sherriff and is a violation of this code.

Any participant who knowingly violates this Code of Conduct is subject to discipline that may include:

1. Removal from the activity/event or the property where the event he or she is participating in is being held, including the Northwestern Michigan Fairgrounds
2. Disqualification from all activities including the fair week and off season events that full calendar year. Zero Tolerance.
3. In cases involving possession or consumption of illegal drugs or possession or consumption of alcohol the proper law authorities will be contacted. Zero Tolerance.
4. During the week of fair the Northwestern Michigan Fair Officials have the right to discipline as they see fit in compliance with the Premium Book.