Animal Health Plan Agreement

Fair Check in:

- Species chairs and/or Species Superintendents will collect all animal health records and properly assess all animals for their overall health and condition before entering the barn.
- If the Species Superintendent and/or Species Chair is concerned about the animal's health the animal will not be allowed into the barn until cleared by the Fair Veterinarian.
- The Fair Veterinarian in cooperation with the Fair Board and Superintendents will make the final decisions regarding animal health and the ability to stay on the grounds.

Animal Health and Treatment while on the Fairgrounds:

- Animals shall be treated humanely at all times. Any reports of unethical, inhumane, and/or abusive treatment or actions that cause distress and/or suffering to an animal will be evaluated by the Species Chair, Fair Superintendent, Fair Veterinarian, and/or other appropriate individuals and may lead to disqualification and removal from all 4-H and Open Livestock Shows held at the Fair
- Water buckets shall remain full and fresh at all times
- If an animal becomes sick or injured while on the grounds the Specie Chairs and/or the Superintendent need to be notified, they will then involve the Fair Veterinarian for a treatment plan.
- No animal shall be treated without the knowledge of the Superintendent and Species chair.
- Treatment of an animal shall be by or under the direction of the Fair Veterinarian and be verified with written documentation.
    - If and exhibitor plans to use their own Veterinarian, they must have approval from the fair Superintendent and in the case of conflicting advice the fair Veterinarian has the final say.
