1. Good care of your animal and assigned exhibiting space is an important part of the privilege and responsibility of exhibiting at the Northwest Washington Fair. Because many more people see your animal in the barn than the showing, exhibitors are expected to maintain barn, feeding, and grooming conditions that will ensure the good health and safety of the animals in their care, and will show consideration and sensitivity toward the public visiting the Northwest Washington Fair exhibit. Exhibitors are expected to be available to the fair visitor to discuss their exhibit or project. Exhibitors are reminded that they are hosts/hostesses in their barn.
2. Herdsmanship needs to be performed from 10 AM to 9 PM.
3. FFA exhibiting youth members are to perform their own herdsman chores. Herdsmanship done by adults or non-members can result in forfeit of all awards and premiums by the exhibitor involved. No more than one warning will be given by the Superintendent or Fair Staff.
4. An adult needs to be on duty when youth are performing Herdsmanship but shall not assist FFA exhibitors.
5. It is the intent of the Northwest Washington Fair to recognize every exhibitor who maintains adequate standards, it is a responsibility that comes with the privilege of participating at the Fair and should come with personal pride and team support. Herdsmanship will be judged 2-3 times daily. Failure to maintain adequate standards may result in loss of premiums.
6. Failure to perform herdsmanship could result in exhibitor loss of premiums.
