All entries must be registered on-line. This will be required for all exhibits and exhibitors that are entered in the fair. If you don't have access to a computer, then the library is your best option.

Please note: Due to Health Department regulations, the public is no longer allowed to sample 4-H foods or drinks created in 4-H cooking contests, demonstrations, presentations, 4-H in Action or any other form of public 4-H activity. If you see something that you would like to try, please ask our 4-H member to supply you with a recipe.

1. This is a non-judged activity.
2. This activity is not as formal as a presentation; however, the demonstration should be planned and practiced. Individuals, teams, and groups are encouraged to share an activity with the public. Information should be presented, and questions answered. Demonstrations are suggested to be about one hour to two hours in length.
 - Display Information about the activity.
 - Engage the public
3. Examples of activities that would work well in this type of demonstration are: spinning wool, using a serger to construct a garment, showing how to use grooming equipment, how and why to recycle, repurposing recycled items, construction of craft items, quilting, knitting, crocheting or sewing, showing how cameras work, beading, painting, how to draw, trim, edit photos, create a stepping stone, cross stitch, flower arrangements, showing how to build something, showing how to create bonsai.
4. You are responsible to provide all supplies and equipment necessary to complete your demonstration.
5. Time and location for demonstrations need to be scheduled when registering on-line in the department where entered. An exhibitor can enter during the fair in the 4H area in the Farm Pavilion. A sign-up sheet will be available on the first day of the fair.
6. All entries and set up displays MUST be done by the exhibitor. NO adult involvement in the actual set up of displays.
