- 1) This is a non-judged activity.
- 2) This activity is not as formal as a presentation; however, the demonstration should be planned and practiced. Individuals, teams, and groups are encouraged to share an activity with the public. Information should be presented, and questions answered. Demonstrations need to be at least 20 minutes in length. 4-H in Actions are suggested to be about 40 minutes to an hour in length.
- 3) 4-H in Action exhibitors are expected to:
 - Share their first name
 - Dress cleanly and neatly
 - Display Information about the activity
 - Engage the public
- 4) Examples of activities that would work well in this type of demonstration are: spinning wool, using a sewing machine to construct a garment, repurposing recycled items, construction of craft items, quilting, knitting, crocheting or sewing, showing how cameras work, beading, painting, how to draw, slime, edit photos, create a stepping stone, cross stitch, flower arrangements, showing how to build something, or Legos.
- 5) Please note: Due to Health Department regulations, the public is no longer allowed to sample 4-H foods or drinks created in 4-H cooking contests, demonstrations, presentations, 4-H in Action or any other form of public 4-H activity. Please have recipe cards printed available to the visiting public.
- 6) You are responsible to provide all supplies and equipment necessary to complete your demonstration.
- 7) Time and location for demonstrations need to be scheduled when registering on-line in the department where entered. An exhibitor can enter during the fair in the 4H area in the Farm Pavilion. A sign-up sheet will be available on the first day of the fair.
- 8) All entries and set up displays MUST be done by the exhibitor. NO adult involvement in the actual set up of displays.
