It is presumed that the sample of urine, saliva, blood, or other substance tested by the laboratory to which it is sent is the one taken from the animal in question, its integrity is preserved and all procedures of said collection and preservation, transfer to the laboratory and analysis of the sample are correct and accurate and the report received from the laboratory pertains to the sample taken from the animal in question and correctly reflects the condition of the animal at the time the sample was taken, with the burden on the owner, exhibitor, fitter, trainer, or absolutely responsible person to prove otherwise.

Administration of drugs of any kind or description, except for treating a recognized disease or injury and for the tranquilizing of bulls that may otherwise be dangerous to females in heat, shall be administered by a licensed veterinarian.

Any surgical procedure or injection of any foreign substance or drug or the external application of any substance (irritant, counterirritant, or similar substance) which could affect the animal's performance or alter its natural contour, confirmation, or appearance, except external applications of substances to the hoofs or horns of animals which affect appearance only and except for surgical procedures performed by a duly licensed veterinarian for the sole purpose of protecting the health of the animal, is prohibited. It is further a consent that any action which contravenes these rules and is also in violation of federal, state, or provincial statutes, regulations, or rules may be released to appropriate law enforcement authorities with jurisdiction over such infractions.

METHOD TO REGISTER A FORMAL COMPLAINT:

Presenting a signed letter to the Superintendent of that department. A form letter is available at the Superintendent's office.

Be a current Northwest Washington Fair exhibitor competing in the same department as the complaint that is being registered.

The Fair Management will act upon any and all formal complaints.

NOTE FROM NORTHWEST WASHINGTON FAIR:

A signed copy of the International Association of Fair and Expositions National Code of Show Ring Ethics needs to accompany your livestock entry form to the Northwest Washington Fair office. Without the signed code of ethics your livestock entry form will not be accepted.

CLUB & CHAPTER HERDSMANSHIP

1. Good care of your animal and assigned exhibiting space is an important part of the privilege and responsibility of exhibiting at the Northwest Washington Fair. Because many more people see your animal in the barn than the show ring, exhibitors are expected to maintain barn, feeding, and grooming conditions that will insure the good health and safety of the animals in their care, and will show consideration and sensitivity toward the public visiting the Northwest Washington Fair exhibit. Exhibitors are expected to be available to the fair visitor to discuss their 4-H exhibit or project. 4-H exhibitors are reminded that they are hosts/hostesses in their barn.

2. The public's interest in animal welfare, and their opinion of the quality of care given to animals, has become a critical issue.

3. Exhibiting 4-H members are to perform their own herdsman chores. Herdsmanship done by adult non-exhibitors can result in forfeit of all awards and premiums by the exhibitor involved. No more than 1 warning will be given by the superintendent.

4. Every club needs to have a person on duty in their club or 4-H T-shirt to answer questions, sweep, take care of animals during all hours the barn is open to the public.

5. Smaller clubs/chapters may join with others to split herdsman hours. Herdsmanship should be done during ALL barn hours. A parent on duty for each club but shall not assist the exhibitors with maintaining of barn.

6. It is the intent of the Northwest Washington Fair to recognize every exhibitor who maintains adequate standards, it is a responsibility that comes with the privilege of participating at the fair and should come with personal pride and team support. Herdsmanship will be judged 2-3 times daily.

7. Barns and displays will be examined at least twice a day. Failure to maintain adequate standards will result in loss of premiums.

8. NO COOKING IS ALLOWED IN THE BARN. For your own health, and to demonstrate to your fair visitor appropriate hygiene habits for when humans are in close proximity to farm animals, please do not cook, eat or drink while in the penning/stalling/public areas in livestock and equine barns. This applies to exhibitor and chaperone/parent, etc. and will be enforced by the fair. Superintendents will share more information about this very serious issue during exhibitor orientation meetings. We have provided an eating area for all 4-H clubs and FFA chapters to use.

Members will then give each photo a ranking of Blue, Red, White, or no placing.

Photographs will be on display for members to judge at a time to be determined. Ribbons and scorecards can be picked up on TBD. If not picked up, they will be returned with other ribbons on Sunday. Pick up will not be available on Friday or Saturday, as the photography superintendent will not be available.

No premiums will be given for this class. However, participation in this activity can result in better understanding of the criteria used for photography judging, making the 4-H student more aware of what constitutes blue ribbon photography. This should result in more blue ribbons, and therefore, a higher premium payout overall.
