Hall of Fame

The Northwest Washington Fair Hall of Fame was established in 2025 and honors individuals whose dedication, contributions and passion have shaped the Fair's legacy. Our Fair is built on a strong foundation of agriculture, community, and tradition, and we celebrate those who have played a vital role in its success.

Each year, the Northwest Washington Fair Board selects up to three inductees into the Hall of Fame, recognizing those who have made a lasting impact on the Fair and its mission.

Our five core values – Youth, Community, Agriculture, Education, and Entertainment, reflect our commitment to enriching lives and preserving traditions. The Hall of Fame recognizes those who have exemplified these values, leaving a lasting impact on our Fair and Community.

Nomination Eligibility & Guidelines

Nominees may be single individuals or couples, living or deceased. And must have a minimum of fifteen (15) years of individual service or combined service which can include contributions as a competitor, volunteer, employee, Fair Manager, Director, Association Member or other meaningful involvement with the Northwest Washington Fair. (Fair Managers, Staff, and Directors shall not be considered for the award until two (2) years after retirement or term expires). All completed applications will be reviewed by the Community Linkage Committee and Fair Association Members following the September 1 deadline.
