Entries are due online by July 25th.

If you cannot enter on-line, you may still enter your photos at entry drop off.

Exhibits will be due in the Phillips 66 Building Saturday August 5 from 10 am to 2 pm.

Pick up entry and ribbon: Sunday after Fair from 10 am to 2 pm.

The Open class Photography Department encourages all ages and abilities to display their work at the Fair. Please share your photo for our community to enjoy during the Fair.

Open Photography Guidelines:

- On-line entries are still required to be brought in at the times listed for the department. An on-line entry does NOT guarantee a space if the available space is full when you arrive.
- Original prints produced within the last 12 months and not previously shown at the Northwest Washington Fair are eligible.
- All work must have a card attached with your name, division, class, and phone number. Please do not put any identifying marks on the entry itself.
- All photos must be printed on photographic paper. Entries printed on paper, card stock, etc. will not be accepted.
- No frames, glass, plastic wrap etc. All photos must be 8 x 10, placed with a 11 x 14 mat (mat frame, cardboard, foam core, etc.). All photos must be family friendly.
- Division A two entries per exhibitor, each exhibit must be in a different class.
- The judge will be an artist, teacher, or critic of established reputation in the field of photography.
- Photography entries must be picked up Sunday. After Sunday release time there is NO Security available and entries may be moved.
- No entry can be removed early, removal of entry will result in a forfeit of your premium and a one-year suspension in the photography department.
- It is the responsibility of the artist to inform the department if the photograph has been digitally altered (computerized: digitally altered other than resizing and resolution).
