

2022 The Nashville Fair

General Rules

1. ENTRY FEES and ENTRY DEADLINES ARE LOCATED in each department/divisions sections. This will be strictly enforced.
2. All entries must be registered online.
3. Entries must be property, handiwork, or product of the exhibitor and documentation must be submitted if required by the department or division.
4. All entries must be of show quality (sound, healthy, and undamaged in any way) when entered into the Nashville Fair.
5. See the individual departments for the arrival/check-in and release times. Tardiness beyond the official times indicated will not be tolerated. Failure to heed this rule will result in forfeiture of premiums.
6. No refunds will be given on entry fees.
7. Fair Management reserves the right to alter, cancel or refuse to exhibit any item in the best interest of the public.
8. The Nashville Fair or its agents, directors, employees or volunteers will provide responsible care to all articles on exhibition. Nashville Fair will not be responsible for any article of any nature or animal exhibited for any loss, damage, or accident that may occur.
9. Nashville Fair reserves the right to carry over the programs from day to day, or cancel any Divisions on account of tornado, hurricane, excessive rain, fire, or any other calamity over which the fair has no control.
10. Superintendent of Departments will be in charge of the order of judging and the supervision of the show. The Superintendents reserves the right to substitute another qualified Judge to a show if necessary.
11. Regardless of the number of entries an exhibitor has entered in an individual class, only two monies will be paid to the exhibitor in that particular class. If more than one grouping of stock is entered into a group class, only one money will be paid to that exhibitor in that particular group class.
12. Premiums will be paid according to the judge's award recorded by the show secretary. The judge's records shall be final. Judges reserve the right to withhold awards if entries are insufficient or are not of award caliber. Decision of the judge(s) is final.
13. No deviation will be made from this premium list. No official, superintendent or employee has authority to add or take from any premium money in Division and if money is not earned in its respective Division it cannot be shifted to another Division and premium checks will be paid accordingly.
14. Premiums of $600 or more will not be released until Exhibitor has provided SSN/Tax ID number and address for tax purposes.
15. Premiums will be issued electronically, all exhibitors must provide an email address. Premium award emails will be issued as soon as possible after the conclusion of the fair.
16. Unclaimed articles by the release times will be collected and become the property of The Nashville Fair.
17. To continue shows, they must meet the qualifications each year. The division must have the minimum of exhibitors and entries for two consecutive years as set by the Department's Superintendent and committee.
18. No pets except service animals will be allowed anywhere on the fairgrounds.
19. No smoking in any building or barn on the fairgrounds.
20. No alcohol. Firearms, illegal drugs, or fireworks will be allowed on the fairgrounds
21. All exhibitors agree to grant permission to The Nashville Fair to use his/her name, likeness, voice and words in the television, radio, films, newspapers, magazines and other media, and in any form not heretofore described for the lawful purposes and activities of The Nashville Fair, including but not limited to advertising and appealing for funds to support the fair. No compensation will be issued for the use of his/her name or likeness.
22. By providing your e-mail address you are giving The Nashville Fair permission to send you information electronically.