Welcome to the New Mexico State Fair Queen Contest

The New Mexico State Fair Queen title carries enormous honor and prestige. The State Fair Queen represents New Mexico's great southwestern way of life and exemplifies tomorrow's leadership among our state's young women.

The objective of the New Mexico State Fair Queen Contest is to select an official representative of the New Mexico State Fair. The State Fair Queen serves as an ambassador of the New Mexico State Fair and she must exhibit exceptional sportsmanship and high moral and ethical standards.

The Queen should be familiar with New Mexico's agricultural industry and our diverse cultures. She must conduct herself in accordance with her prestigious title, speaking intelligently and with authority about the New Mexico State Fair, the State of New Mexico, and the great sport of Rodeo.

The potential value of the New Mexico State Fair Queen title is limitless. The Queen is the official Representative of the New Mexico State Fair and should be aware of the value of public relations between the general public and the New Mexico State Fair Officials with whom she interacts. The experience she gains during her reign will enrich her life in countless ways.

The New Mexico State Fair welcomes and encourages family, relatives and friends to attend all events open to the public, or as designated in the agenda. Support and assistance during the Queen Contest is very important to your Contestant. She needs encouragement and help during this time. This contest will be a unique experience and is an opportunity to make lifelong friends. The New Mexico State Fair wants everyone associated with the Contestants to have a good time and enjoy the special activities planned throughout the Contest.

2. Criteria. Contestants are judged on the following criteria: Horsemanship, Personality, and Personal Interviews. An overall total of 200 points is available. Please review score sheets for scoring breakdown.

Horsemanship (1st go around)	50 Points
Horsemanship (2nd go around)	50 Points
Personality (speeches)	50 Points
Personal Interview	50 Points

HORSEMANSHIP

The horsemanship division accounts for 50% of the total points. The goal of the horsemanship division is to select the Contestant who is best able to demonstrate her overall horsemanship skills.

There are two (2) riding sessions which consist of a set pattern, a Queen's run, and a free pattern as well as horsemanship questions in the 1st go around. Contestants will draw for order of competition at Orientation. Each Contestant will follow the pattern below. When all Contestants have completed the set pattern and the Queen's run portions of the Horsemanship division, they will return for the free pattern time of two (2) minutes each. After all contestants have completed the free pattern portion, they will line up in the middle of the Arena where the Judges may ask them horsemanship questions.

PERSONALITY

The personality division accounts for 50% of the total points. The goal of the personality division is to select the Contestant who best projects the most enthusiasm, knowledge and confidence. This division includes speech, modeling, impromptu questions, personal interview, written test, and appearance.

There will be a reception where Contestants will model, give prepared speeches, and respond to impromptu questions. Contestants are encouraged to use their full time of three minutes for prepared speeches. Private interviews are scheduled as well; these interviews are casual and designed to let the judges get to know the Contestants on a personal level.

Tie Breaking Procedure: In the event that two Contestants tie, then the Contestant with the higher score in Horsemanship shall be crowned the Queen.

Finality of Judges' Scoring: As a condition of entry into the Queen contest, Contestants agree that the judges' scoring is final and not subject to appeal to any person or body, administrative or judicial.

Congeniality: Contestants may vote by secret ballot for a Congeniality Award to be given to the Contestant who demonstrates a genuine caring and friendliness towards other Contestants throughout the contest. These ballots will not be included in the judging divisions.

Crowning: All Contestants are expected to appear at the Coronation where the Queen and her First and Second Attendants are crowned.

EXPECTATION STATEMENT

I understand that if I win the title of New Mexico State Fair Queen, I will be the New Mexico State Fair's Official Representative and Ambassador to the general public. As Queen, I will uphold the title and give it all the honor and dignity it deserves. I will represent and exhibit sportsmanship and high moral and ethical character. I will speak intelligently and with knowledge about the New Mexico State Fair and the State of New Mexico. I will be familiar with our State's agriculture industry, our western heritage and our diverse cultures.

I understand that the New Mexico State Fair Queen contest is not a beauty contest. Rather, it is a competition which recognizes a number of attributes: sportsmanship, horsemanship, personality, public speaking and appearance. It is my responsibility, as the New Mexico State Fair's official representative to act, speak, and dress according to the esteem the title deserves, any time I am in the public eye.

I represent and agree that I am sponsored by a Responsible Organization, such as my County's Fair Board, FFA, 4-H, Sheriff's Posse, Chamber of Commerce, County Commission, Rodeo/Riding Clubs, Rotary Club, Girl Scouts or a similar group.

I understand and agree that I will provide my own horse and transportation to and from the New Mexico State Fair Queen Contest. I understand and agree that stall space will be available for my horses while competing in the New Mexico State Fair Queen Contest. I understand that there is a limit of 2 horses that I may bring (if space allows), and no stallions are allowed. I will also provide a current Coggins certificate together with a Health Certificate issued no earlier than 30 days prior to arriving at New Mexico State Fairgrounds.

I understand and agree that the New Mexico State Fair has the right to disqualify me should I or any of my family, friends, and/or sponsors or any other person and/or party acting on my behalf, attempt to influence and/or harass any of the Judges, Queen Contest Superintendent, New Mexico State Fair Officials and/or Chaperones. I will be disqualified should I fail to fulfill obligations as directed and set forth in the rules or any other documents and/or forms that I sign in reference to the New Mexico State Fair and the New Mexico State Fair Queen Contest. I will be disqualified should I display any conduct detrimental to the title of "New Mexico State Fair Queen".

I will complete, sign and return, by the entry deadline, all documents and forms, as well as have my applicable guardians, parents and/or Sponsors sign the forms where stated therein. Forms must be returned in their entirety.

I will complete and return all items on the Entry Application Check List.

Should I become the New Mexico State Fair Queen, I will:

- Wear my crown and banner any time I am acting as New Mexico State Fair Queen.
- Make myself available for opportunities to appear as New Mexico State Fair Queen to the public and be prepared for photograph and interview opportunities to promote the New Mexico State Fair.
- Attend specific events as requested by Expo New Mexico.
- Execute a contract with the New Mexico State Fair if I win the Queen Title or the first runner-up position.
- Uphold the title of New Mexico State Fair Queen, encourage others to participate in future contests and assist in the provisions of my reign, act as hostess to Contestants in next year's Contest, and assist in the promotion and conduct of the contest in every way I am asked.
- Maintain close contact with the Queen Superintendent who will be my official chaperone and must approve my official appearances.

I agree that from my entry as a Contestant throughout my reign as New Mexico State Fair Queen, I shall remain unmarried. I shall observe the high standards of moral, ethical, and professional behavior befitting my Title and will set a good public example to future Contestants.
