Overview

Every county in the state has an abundance of resources, whether natural, agricultural, mineral or industrial. Whether manufactured or raw, it is possible for every county to display its finest products it produces and promotes in the show window of the NM State Fair.

County Booths

Section 224

Special Rules

1. Mileage will no longer be allocated.
2. Any product of the county, whether it be natural, agricultural, mineral or researched, may be used in the display. Anything may be displayed in the booth of a reasonable nature that shows in a creditable and attractive manner the outstanding features of the county.
3. The theme for this year is: “To Be Determined”.
4. No commercial advertising will be permitted in the booth exhibit. Products of experiment stations cannot be exhibited in the booth.
5. Written application for a booth may be made by County Extension Agent, Chamber of Commerce, Farm Bureau, or by an organization or individual in the name of the County.

6. All applications received on behalf of a county will be evaluated but only one can be accepted for the purpose of reserving a booth. For consideration as the county representative, applications must be received in the Entry Office by August 1, 2025. Otherwise, applications from other agriculture oriented or civic organizations will be considered for those booths not allotted.
7. Uniform space allotted for each county will be a booth 4 ft. deep by 8 ft. wide with display height of 40" (Subject to availability).
8. Exhibits must be in place by 5:00 PM Tuesday, September 2, 2025. The Agriculture Building will be closed Wednesday, September 3, 2025 from 9:00 AM to 12:00 PM for judging.
See rule #14: Exhibits may not be removed until Monday, September 15, 2025 from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM.
9. Signs bearing the name of the County will be furnished without charge, and must be placed in uniform line at top of exhibit.
10. Decayed fruit and vegetables must be replaced with fresh products if necessary to maintain appearance. At their discretion, the Superintendent has the right to discard decaying items.
11. Precautions are taken for the safety of all entries, but in no case, will the New Mexico State Fair, the state of New Mexico, employees, contractors or volunteers be held liable for the loss or damages to any entry while in the Fair's possession. Participants are encouraged to carry their own insurance.

12. Participant recognizes that marketing of the Fair and its grounds requires use of photography and video. Participant hereby expressly grants to the Fair the irrevocable, assignable right and license to take, use and publish participant images and entries without the need for any other approval. Images and entries will not be used for profit.
13. Participants are responsible for picking up their own entries or provide written authorization for pick-up by another individual.
14. NEW: Entries must be picked up Monday, September 15, 2025 from 9:00am – 5:00pm. Any work remaining on the Fairgrounds after this date will be considered abandoned and shall become the property of the NM State Fair to be disposed of at its discretion.
