Black Eagle Singers from Jemez Pueblo to Welcome Māori Delegation at Gathering of Nations Pow Wow

What: The Gathering of Nations Pow Wow at Expo New Mexico welcomes a special cultural exchange as the Black Eagle Singers from Jemez Pueblo welcome the visiting Māori delegation of New Zealand.

When: Today, April 24, at 2:00 p.m.

Where: Expo New Mexico, on the lawn south of the fountain.

Details: This unique event celebrates the diversity of Indigenous cultures worldwide. The Black Eagle Singers, renowned for their traditional performances, will honor the Māori delegation with a special welcome.

Background: The Gathering of Nations Pow Wow is the largest Pow Wow in North America, attracting thousands of participants and spectators annually. This year, the inclusion of Māori culture adds a new dimension to the event, fostering cross-cultural exchange.

Media Opportunities: Media representatives are invited to capture the sights and sounds of this cultural exchange. Interviews with representatives from Gathering of Nations can be arranged upon request.
