Federal Sheep and Goat ID Requirements for Scrapie

Sheep and goats that are sexually intact and used for breeding, show and/or exhibition are required to have official individual animal and premises identification prior to sale or movement. For further information, contact Dr. Paul Scigliabaglio, USDA, Albuquerque Office, (505) 761-3160.

Livestock Inspection

All in-state junior livestock (cattle, sheep, goats and swine) showing at New Mexico fairs must have an NMLB APPROVED fair tag furnished by the NMLB and a Form 1 inspection issued by the NMLB before entering any county or state fair. All out of state livestock must comply with New Mexico import requirements. The Form 1 inspection will be issued at the time the NMLB APPROVED tag is placed in the animal, tags will be issued by the NMLB. The application of the tag will be done by the extension agent, FFA advisor or fair personnel. All animals must be tagged and inspected no later than June 15th. The purpose of these requirements is to keep on file a record of animals that are commingled at fairs and shows.

Sheep

1. Proof of ownership (NMLB "form 1" inspection certificate) must accompany the animal when traveling, whether in or out of district; this provides the assurance that all requirements are met.
2. A NMLB APPROVED fair ear tag provided by the NMLB, a NMLB registered tattoo (tattoo registered with NMLB) and a Form 1 inspection issued by the NMLB. The tattoo can be the 4-H or FFA tattoo.
3. Market or breeding sheep and goats purchased from out of state, must comply with NM livestock entry rules and USDA interstate transport rule including a CVI, USDA scrapie identification and an entry permit number.
4. All sexually intact sheep and goats entered in market or breeding classes must have an official USDA scrapie tag applied to the ear. Registered breeding goats may utilize a legible breed registry tattoo in lieu of a scrapie tag.
5. Please see 2019 Exhibition Season: Additional Guidelines for Breeding Sheep and Goats in Junior Livestock General Rules.

Additional rules

1. No copies or faxed copies of TB test charts (VS Form 6-22) or health certificates will be accepted, unless signed by the veterinarian (who administered the test) in blue ink certifying the copy. The exhibitor must bring these documents to fair check-in.
2. NMLB approved regulatory identification is required for all test eligible animals.
3. Any clinical signs or evidence of an infectious and/or contagious disease will result in that animal's immediate removal from the fairgrounds.
4. Out of state equine and livestock entries must adhere to New Mexico entry requirements and all current New Mexico fair entry requirements. Please review NM livestock entry requirements at www.nmlbonline.com and contact the NMLB office for any updates regarding state entry requirements.
5. ANY ANIMAL, ARRIVING AT A SHOW OR FAIR, FOUND NOT TO BE IN COMPLIANCE WITH NEW MEXICO STATE STATUTES OR LIVESTOCK BOARD RULES WILL BE SENT HOME AND GIVEN THE OPPORTUNITY TO BECOME COMPLIANT FOR FUTURE SHOWS AND FAIRS.
6. This information is provided only as a guide and may not contain all necessary requirements for livestock bound for exhibitions and shows. It is extremely important to consult your 4-H Leader, FFA Advisor, County Agent and your Livestock Inspector for updated information well ahead of your planned date of transport. Be sure to contact the destination fairs and livestock shows for their own rules.

Division 30 Sheep

Sheep commentary is due at time of entry. Late commentary will not be accepted. All entrants must have two (2) commentaries - 1 about sheep ONLY and 1 about garment. All commentaries must be emailed to the Director. Entrants in this class must be residents of New Mexico between the ages of 2 and 19. Junior and Senior Divisions must show at halter a sheep with no more than two (2) teeth. Pee-Wee and Novice Divisions must show at halter a weaned lamb or a sheep with no more than two (2) teeth. Purebred ewes of any wool breed are eligible. Ewes will be checked in Friday, September 9, 2022 between 8:00 AM and 5:00 PM.
