AWARDS (also see Award Listing):

11. All exhibitors are eligible for standard awards and premium payouts. 12. Individual exhibits are limited to one cash award in any one class.
13. The American System is used, and decisions of the judges are final. Judges choose (1) first, (1) second, and (1) third place winner in each class; however, the judges reserve the option to withhold ribbons and awards in a class where there is no deserving entry. Disrespect shown to any award or to any judge by an exhibitor forfeits all awards made to him/her. Violation of any of the rules listed will cause the exhibitor to forfeit all awards.
14. Grand Champion awards are presented to the “Best” entries in each department. “Best” is defined as “that which demonstrates the best technique, skill or animal in the eyes of the judge”.
15. Special Premium awards are sponsored by local businesses and individuals. A first and second place is awarded to entries that the judges determine warrant special recognition. Special Awards and premiums will only be paid to residents of the northern 10 counties of Idaho.

Other special awards for residents of the northern 10 counties in Idaho and youth exhibitors.

How is my entry judged? When does it happen? Can I watch?

The North Idaho State Fair uses the American system of judging, all exhibits in the department are evaluated and judged against each other. All judging is closed to the public, with the exception of the Chocolate Extravaganza, Apple Pie Contest, and Livestock Shows.

What's the difference between the American system and the Danish system?

In the AMERICAN system, exhibits are ranked in the order of quality. Items are placed 1st, 2nd, and 3rd, and labeled with special awards such as Grand Champion and Best of Show, if applicable. The North Idaho State Fair's Competitive Exhibits Program uses this system.

In the DANISH system, exhibits are evaluated according to quality standards. Items meeting the quality standard are awarded blue ribbons. Red ribbons are given if the exhibit does not meet all the quality standards, and white ribbons are awarded if the exhibit rates only moderately satisfactory for the standards. Kootenai/Shoshone 4-H Program and local participating FFA chapters use this system.
