SCORING/JUDGING GUIDELINES

- a) A panel of (3) three judges will be selected. Silent Judges may be present. An Applicant's score will consist of the total of all judge's scores.
- b) Judges are selected for their expertise in all fields of the competition; horsemanship, speech, etc. They should all have an awareness of correct western dress, they should be knowledgeable about the sport of professional rodeo, and they should be experienced western-type horsemen and horsewomen who are accustomed to judging horse events.
- c) The judges have been instructed as to the type of girl the MGSS contest seeks, exemplifying: sincerity, integrity, attractiveness, intelligence, high moral standards, maturity, public speaking ability, horsemanship ability, knowledge of the Gem State Stampede and North Idaho State Fair, knowledge of professional rodeo, current events, the state of Idaho and horse science.
- d) MGSS is selected by a panel of judges based on her overall performance in several categories, which may include horsemanship (including patterns, equitation, presentation ride, and flag presentation), personal interview, modeling, speech, impromptu questions, written knowledge test, personality, appearance, and overall impression. 525 points (Per Judge) possible in the contest, with 40pts for written test to be added in. The overall winner will be crowned Miss Gem State Stampede with the next highest individual receiving First Runner-up. Highest scoring Applicant must meet a minimum- scoring standard of 70% (of the total overall score) to be considered for the position of Miss Gem State Stampede. The horsemanship portion will be weighted heavier than the other categories. (See Appendix C)
- e) Judges may attend any or all pageant events that are not scored; therefore you should be yourself at all times.
- f) All decisions of the judges are final.
- g) Ties for award winners will be broken by referring back to Judge #1. Judge #1's score will break the tie. If a tie still remains, Judge #2's score will be used and so on until the tie is broken. Miss Congeniality ties will be broken by a second balloting by contestants. A tie for MGSS and runners-up will be broken by the horsemanship scores, i.e., the contestant with highest score in horsemanship will receive the higher ranking.
- h) An individual's scores and judges' comments will be available to her not less than 10 days or no more than 30 days after the pageant, upon written request of Applicant.

Appearance - The purpose of this judged division is to select the young lady who rates highest in:

- 1) Attractiveness
- 2) Grooming – to include neatness and cleanliness in every detail such as complexion, use of cosmetics, hands, fingernails, hair, hat, boots and other apparel. Meticulous care in general grooming is essential.
- 3) Poise, posture, and lady-like behavior
- 4) Photogenic quality
- 5) Knowledge of proper western attire to include:
- 6) Clothing that is western, fashionable, and tasteful. Attention will be given to an Applicant's ability to use color and style to enhance their personal features. Proper fit is important, including figure flattering styles altered for a personal fit and properly fitted and shaped hats. Judges will be looking for versatility, imagination, and an Applicant' ability to carry out a "total look" rather than expensive or excessive clothing.
- 7) Dresses, skirts, and blouses should reflect a western image. Evening gowns or cocktail type dresses are not permitted.
- 8) Applicants are expected to appear in full western attire at all times unless otherwise specified. This includes Wrangler pants or jeans, dresses, skirts, blouses, jackets, hats, boots, belt.
- 9) Dress should always be appropriate for the occasion.
- 10) Knowledge of current trends in western wear manufacturing.

Personality - The purpose of this judged division is to select the young lady who rates the highest in:

- 1) Intelligence – good common sense and logic
- 2) Education – knowledge of and conversational ability in rodeo and other areas with special emphasis on grammar and enunciation.
- 3) Attractiveness – not necessarily to mean beauty in this sense, but rather that the contestant radiates self-confidence. She should also show maturity, high moral standards, sincerity, and integrity.
- 4) Genuine interest in other people in the pageant, rodeo and in the fair – and a noticeable consideration of others.
- 5) Self-projection – the ability to project one's personality whether it is from horseback in the arena, or before an audience. Other considerations include a sense of humor, showmanship, ambition, desire, and enthusiasm.
- 6) Sense of Humor, Positive outlook on life in general.
- 7) Extemporaneous questions – which require the contestant to think on her feet and show maturity, intelligence, wisdom, and imagination.
- 8) Professionalism – the contestant's ability to conduct herself in a professional manner in all aspects of competition.
- 9) Public Appearances – the ability to speak to an audience in an interesting manner about facts, their state, rodeo, and more.
- 10) Promptness and cooperation. Please note that if an Applicant fails to arrive on time for any pageant event she may be disqualified at the Pageant Coordinator's discretion.
- 11) Ability and willingness to work well with others, including coordinator and board members.

JUDGED CATEGORIES/EVENTS

Horsemanship - May includes but not limited to:

Rail work, pattern, cattle work, presentation run and flag run. The purpose of this judged division is to select the young lady who rates highest in:

1. Equitation: balance, ability and position of hands, feet and seat when riding at a reasonable rate of speed for the activity.
2. Pattern: understanding of leads and proper execution of a specific pattern.
3. Showmanship: posture, poise, style and flair (how well a contestant projects her personality to the audience from horseback).

It is not the horse, but the skill, understanding and ability of the contestant that will be judged.

Each contestant will be required to provide their own horse, which can be ridden in a bridle (NO snaffle bits, O-ring, D-ring) with one hand on the reins.

Each Applicant will compete in horsemanship competition. The judges will select from the patterns marked Pattern #1, #2 or #3 (included) to be performed that day. One will be on your horse, one will be on your draw horse. The patterns will be demonstrated by the reigning MGSS. Horses will be drawn at random and the contestant will have 5 minutes to ride the drawn horse prior to performing. Horses may be drawn from contestant horses or stock contractor and/or outside string of horses. The horsemanship competition will be weighted heavier than the other categories.

At the judges' discretion, patterns may be altered. The Applicants may be required to dismount and remount, perform rail work, move cattle, do free style work or change the pattern as so designated by the judges. The Applicants may be asked to carry a flag and/or make a presentation ride. Judges will talk to the Applicants, or ask horsemanship questions in the arena, during the Horsemanship. Please bring a flag boot with you.

Attire - Required attire for horsemanship is, western attire including a plain white long sleeved button or snap up western shirt (NO embellishments), blue or black jeans, belt, western boots and hat. (Approved ASTM Equestrian Helmets are okay. NO straw hats). No chaps, sequence or rhinestones of any kind will be allowed. Please try to be conservative with belts and tack. The Applicant's horse should be appropriately groomed and suitable for others to ride; her tack should be clean and in good working order. Hats must be secured to ensure that they do not come off while performing.

Note: Judges may, at their discretion, deduct points or disqualify from competition any Applicant if they see trainers, family members, or friends coaching Applicants from the side. No stallions, late term mares or mares with foals allowed.

Horsemanship Interview - Knowledge of tack, horse science (including feeding, grooming, parts of the horse, health care, etc.), rodeo terminology, explanation of rodeo events, championship rodeo standings and current issues of the PRCA and Columbia River Circuit. Judges may ask horsemanship questions in the arena, during the interview or for the impromptu question.

- 1) Correct answers to questions related to knowledge of the pageant, the Gem State Stampede, North Idaho State Fair and its sponsors, Pro-Rodeo World including PRCA and WPRA/PWRA (including current standings, history & organization), rodeo terminology, explanation of rodeo events, equine knowledge (including tack, horse care, feeding, diseases, anatomy, etc.) & current events (Excellent sources of information are the Pro-Rodeo sports news, the Official PRCA Rule Book, and the Official Pro-Rodeo Media Guide all of which are available from the PRCA Office, 101 Pro-Rodeo Drive, Colorado Springs, CO 80919 or (www.prorodeo.com) Also the North Idaho State Fair at <https://www.nisfair.fun/>
- 2) Appearance
- 3) Personality

Knowledge/Presentation - This category showcases applicants knowledge base and ability to present.

Personal Interview - Each Applicant will meet with the panel of judges for minimum of 10 minutes and not to exceed 15 minutes. The Applicant should have the ability to remain poised while holding a conversation or answering questions. The Applicant has the opportunity to show their knowledge of rodeo as well as show their personality. The questions will help the judges determine how well the Applicant remains composed under pressure and how they act or react under certain situations and environments.

Modeling - Modeling will have one round. Each Applicant will model elegant dress and model before delivering their speech.

- Poise and ladylike behavior in every situation. This should include handling each situation with grace, style and proper etiquette.
- Ability of contestant to draw in the audience.

- 1) Appearance
- 2) Personality
- 3) Creativity
- 4) Initiative/Flair
- 5) Stage Presence
- 6) Proper Presentation
- 7) Self Confidence

Public Speaking - Impromptu Speech - Each contestant will receive 1 to 5 topics selected by the MGSS Board. There are 10 minutes for each Applicant to prepare a minute and a half speech. All speeches will be timed, and the judges will be given the length of each contestant's speech. The purpose of this judged division is to select the Applicant who rates highest on content; delivery, including use of microphone, enunciation and grammar; appearance, including poise; self-assurance, including personality, projection to the audience, and eye contact; organization and subject relevancy to required topic.

Impromptu Questions - will be asked during modeling and public speaking portion and can be asked during other events as well. They may cover such topics as rodeo, current events, the fair, horsemanship, horse science, personal, or fun. Judging criteria includes:

- 1) Ability to answer the question.
- 2) Delivery
- 3) Knowledge
- 4) Enunciation
- 5) Personality:
  - a. ability to relate to the audience
  - b. sense of humor

- 1) Overall appearance
- 2) Choice of colors
- 3) Expression-Attitude
- 4) Eye contact with camera

Congeniality - This category is chosen by the Applicants. This award has no point value towards the title. Special awards may apply.

Miss Gem State Stampede, North Idaho State Fair

Expectations and Rules of Conduct

GENERAL

- 1) I understand that if I earn the title of Miss Gem State Stampede (MGSS), I will be an official representative and be responsible to represent the Gem State Stampede and North Idaho State Fair in a professional manner. I will strive to represent sportsmanship, high moral and ethical character and humane treatment of animals, befitting my title and set a good example to the public, to future competitors, and the Miss Gem State Stampede Queen Program.
- 2) I understand that the Miss Gem State Stampede Program is not a beauty contest. Rather, it is a competition that recognizes a number of attributes (i.e., horsemanship, public speaking, personality, and appearance). Therefore, it is my responsibility, as a Gem State Stampede official representative, to act, speak and dress according to the esteem my title deserves anytime I am in the public eye.
- 3) The Fair Board and Manager have a zero tolerance policy in regards to drinking alcohol, smoking cigarettes, use of marijuana, or any other drug abuse. If you are of legal drinking age, you may do so in private and in moderation; absolutely no public drinking is allowed. If this rule is violated, it will result in immediate dismissal.
- 4) Public speaking is an essential part of the position and, as such, I will continue to grow in my public speaking abilities so as to professionally represent the Gem State Stampede.
- 5) Riding and horsemanship skills are essential to the promotion of the sport of rodeo. Therefore, I will strive to improve my riding and horsemanship skills in order to better promote the sport of rodeo.
- 6) The MGSS and her parent(s) and/or guardian(s) will be required, immediately following the coronation, to sign a contract for her year of reign and abide by its rules. A copy of the contract will be handed out at orientation.
- 7) I understand and agree that my official appearances must be approved by the MGSS Committee, and agree to maintain close contact with the Committee to accomplish this. The MGSS is never to attend an event representing the Gem State Stampede or North Idaho State Fair without prior MGSS Director Authorization.
- 8) The MGSS is expected to wear queen attire at all events. It is the responsibility of the MGSS to keep herself neat, clean, and well-groomed at all times. Clothes must be clean, pressed and presentable and she must be in complete Queen Attire at each event, meeting or appointment. Equipment/tack must be clean, presentable and in working order at all times.
- 9) I agree that during the term from my entry as an Applicant and through my reign as Miss Gem State Stampede, I shall not be engaged to be married at the time of my selection and agree not to enter into engagement to be married for the duration of my reign.
- 10) Becoming pregnant during reign will result in immediate dismissal.
- 11) No significant other (male/female), who I am in a relationship with, shall attend events that I am attending as MGSS. As MGSS, I will not travel to any appearances with him/her regardless of the situation.
- 12) If I possess a personal website or profile (i.e., Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, TikTok, etc.), I agree that all material contained therein will be maintained to reflect a positive image of me, and my position as MGSS.
- 13) I agree that the MGSS Title commitment will be my first priority over any other activities I may be involved in (i.e., rodeo, sports teams, 4-H etc.) throughout the year of my reign.
- 14) As MGSS you will be required to provide yourself with a horse and transportation suitable for the activities that you will be asked to participate in. Examples are: Riding in Parades and carrying sponsor Flags.
- 15) The MGSS Committee oversees the MGSS Program and provides administrative guidance and approval upon the direction of the North Idaho State Fair Manager.
- 16) As MGSS you must attend selected rodeos and appear in parades and other civic and social activities and North Idaho State Fair designated events and meetings requesting your presence. The MGSS Committee will prepare an itinerary. Great care will be taken in providing as much advance notice as possible for all events; however, please keep in mind that some invitations are received by the Committee with short notice.

- 17) All requests for not attending scheduled events must be delivered two weeks prior to the event for the MGSS Director to consider. Emergency, illness, or ample notice of conflict will be excused absence by the MGSS Director. Not having transportation or fuel will not be excused. Absence from 2 (two) scheduled events/appointments without prior approval from MGSS Committee may result in dismissal
- 18) You may be requested to assist and/or attend events prior to the end of 2022. Your official reign and duties as MGSS will begin January 1, 2023.
- 19) If at any time you are observed violating any of these rules, by the MGSS Director, members of the Board of Directors, or any of the Gem State Stampede or North Idaho State Fair general membership, the MGSS Committee will discuss the matter with you. If there is no resolution to the problem, It can requested that you forfeit and relinquish all right and privileges of your title, including scholarship, awards, tack and accessories provided by Committee and sponsors, at the request of the Committee. Failure to complete your reign as MGSS shall obligate the title holder to reimburse the MGSS Committee and sponsors for all monies and items won and/or received as MGSS
- 20) In the event a MGSS cannot fulfill her duties as title holder or has been dismissed, if there is a Runner Up, she will be asked to assume the duties of MGSS. If there is no runner up the MGSS Director, Manager, and Fair Board of Directors reserves the rights to either appoint a queen or contact the past MGSS (in reverse chronological order) until a MGSS is found or forego a MGSS for the rest of the reign.

Finances

All monies generated by the MGSS shall be deposited into the North Idaho State Fair account. The MGSS Committee manages how the budget and money is spent.

- a) As MGSS, funds can be raised by holding fundraisers and securing sponsorships. All fundraisers and sponsors must be approved by the MGSS Director upon the direction of the Fairgrounds Manager.
- b) As MGSS you will raise money to help support the MGSS Program
- c) Any form letters sent to business sponsors need to be approved by the MGSS Director and Fairgrounds Manager prior to distribution.
- d) All expenditures will be paid out of the MGSS's annual budget.
- e) The financial responsibility of transportation, wear and tear, is the responsibility of the MGSS and her family.
- f) Reimbursement for submitted expenditures must be submitted on the Purchase Request Form and all receipts MUST be turned in to the MGSS Director (mailed or emailed) no later than 7 days past the event for approval. After approved, a check for reimbursement will then be sent from the fair office to the MGSS.
  - i. Examples of reimbursable expenses include travel expenses, and tickets/fees to attend required events for the MGSS.
  - ii. Examples of non-reimbursable expenses include clothing, personal grooming items and supplies and horse tack and care supplies.
- g) Expenses over $250 must be pre-approved by the Office
- h) The final expense report must be submitted no later than December 1st of the year of the MGSS's reign in order to allow for processing prior to December 31st.
- i) Monies left over from the MGSS's reign will roll over to the next year to continue support for the MGSS program.
- j) The North Idaho State Fair will pay mileage at $0.54 per mile when hauling a horse to approved appearances only. Request for reimbursement of mileage must be submitted to the MGSS Director, no later than 7 days after event. Mileage is calculated and paid from the Fairgrounds address 4056 N Government Way, Coeur d'Alene, ID. to the event location, not from the MGSS's home address. Roundtrips fewer than 30 miles will not be reimbursed.

Scholarship

Each year the North Idaho Fair Foundation Committee sponsors a scholarship, upon successful completion of her year of reign for the lady who wins the Miss Gem State Stampede Title. The scholarship can only be redeemed by contacting the Fair Office with a letter of acceptance from the school or with another form of confirmation of school attendance. Scholarship money will be sent directly to the school and has no monetary value unless redeemed through a recognized school.

Traveling Property Items

The following items are the property of the Miss Gem State Stampede program and will be made available to the titleholder. Titleholder will be responsible for maintenance, damage, loss or theft of such property while in her possession. Such property shall be returned in good condition within 10 days of completion of reign as MGSS or immediately upon dismissal. All traveling MGSS Items must be checked in at the beginning of the year and checked out at the end. Other items obtained during a MGSS's reign may be added to the below list of the rotating items for the MGSS program.

- Attend specific events as requested by the MGSS Committee, and be prepared to promote the Gem State Stampede and North Idaho State Fair.
- Be fully dressed in Queen attire, as assigned, before arrival to an event anytime I am acting in the capacity of Miss Gem State Stampede.
- Make sure clothing is kept clean and pressed (using dry cleaning services unless otherwise designated) and hat is heat blocked and clean, for all appearances.
- Never wear hair “wash and wear” style or be caught in rollers.
- Keep fingernails clean and manicured.
- Be careful when choosing attire when not in uniform, remembering I constantly represent the Fair & Rodeo.
- Understand that chewing gum is not allowed while in public places or riding in parades and rodeos.
- Keep family/personal matters private and not on display.
- Avoid cell phone use during any event that I am a guest of while representing the Fair & Rodeo.
- Not engage in gossip or lying, make defamatory or slanderous comments concerning others, exhibit racial insensitivity, use inappropriate language or participate in other conduct unbecoming of the title of Miss Gem State Stampede.
- Maintain a positive attitude.
- Agree to execute a separate agreement with the Gem State Stampede and North Idaho State Fair with respect to my duties as Miss Gem State Stampede.
- Uphold the title of Miss Gem State Stampede while fulfilling the provisions of my reign.
- Encourage others to participate in future pageants, act as a hostess to contestants in future pageants, and assist in the promotion and conduct of the pageant in every way.

Remember, you are representing Gem State Stampede and North Idaho State Fair, its members and affiliates. You will be looked upon as a role model and an example. During your reign as the Miss Gem State Stampede, you will be the “Ambassador”, and will be expected to portray the highest of moral standards and show the ideals of womanhood. Appearance shall reflect being “on the job” at all times setting an example beyond reproach.
