

Department Open Culinary Arts #25

Important Information:

1. Click her for online entry <http://nwsfa.firwire.com>
2. Use only this year's entry booklet. This Department has been extensively updated.
3. Schedule can be found on page 1.
4. See pages 2-8 for general information that pertains to all departments. It is the exhibitor's responsibility to follow all expectations.
5. When there are less than three exhibits entered in a lot, the exhibit(s) may be moved to Miscellaneous at the time of judging. Learn more about this rule by researching DATCP, ATCP 160.07(1).
6. Exhibitors must be amateurs except entrants in the Commercial class. An amateur is defined as someone who prepares food products for personal reasons, with no monetary compensation from any related source. Commercial enterprises and businesses are those deriving income from the sale of food products or from any related source
7. New this year...
 - A section for Youth exhibitors, age 14 years or under. This is intended for young people NOT showing in the Junior Fair Competition.
 - Heirloom Foods Contest. Judged during the fair, the audience welcomed.
8. All entries must be pre-registered.
9. The use of prepared mixes (brownies, cake, pudding, etc.) is allowed only in Class J: Prepared Mixes.
10. Each exhibit—except for Commercial—must include a clearly written or printed recipe that includes instructions and oven temperature. Do not include your name on the recipe but DO include your exhibitor number. Commercial exhibitors are exempt from this requirement.
11. Each baked exhibit shall be placed on a 7 or 9-inch white foam plate inserted in a clear zipper style bag. No paper plates as they absorb oil. The recipe should be placed in the bag, under the plate. Entry tag string should be inserted and taped to the inside of bag, with the tag hanging outside and the zipper securely closed.
12. An item and its recipe may be exhibited ONLY once by the same individual. Pick the best category; each item/recipe should be in only one class and one lot. Class and/or lot changes will be allowed only at the department supervisor's discretion.
13. If there are fewer than 3 entries in a lot, they will be moved to "Any other not listed" in the same class at the time of judging.
14. Plan ahead. Bring items to the exhibit hall already cool, cut, plated, and ready for exhibit.
15. The department supervisor has the privilege of removing deteriorating exhibits during the fair.
16. All foods will be considered unsafe for consumption at the close of the fair, and will be disposed of, except for unopened canned goods.
17. Recipes will remain property of NWSF (Northern Wisconsin State Fair).
18. How much to bring for each entry: See instructions for individual classes below.
19. Awards:
 - Best of Show Ribbons will be awarded by Class at the discretion of the judge.
 - One Sweepstakes Ribbon will be awarded from among the Best of Show winners at the discretion of the judge. An additional $15 premium will accompany a Sweepstakes Ribbon.
20. NOTE: Maple syrup and honey can be entered in Department A-16, Natural Sciences. Beer and wine can be entered Department A-21.
