

JUNE CROP REPORT

June Status: Oregon Wheat

Beneficial rains in May supported the Oregon wheat crop development, as reflected in the USDA ratings, which are improved from a year ago during this same time period. Winter wheat headed as of June 1, 2025 was at 88%, which is ahead of the five year average of 74%.

Soft white winter wheat in Wasco County on May 31, 2025. Reflecting two varieties.

Soft white winter wheat in Union County on June 2, 2025. Reflecting irrigated wheat. Photo credit: Paul Reed.

Soft white winter wheat in Lane County on June 2, 2025. Photo Credit: Collin Crocker

Soft white winter wheat in Wasco County on May 28, 2025. Photo Credit: Josh Duling

Soft white winter wheat in Gilliam County on June 3, 2025. Photo credit: Sam Bates

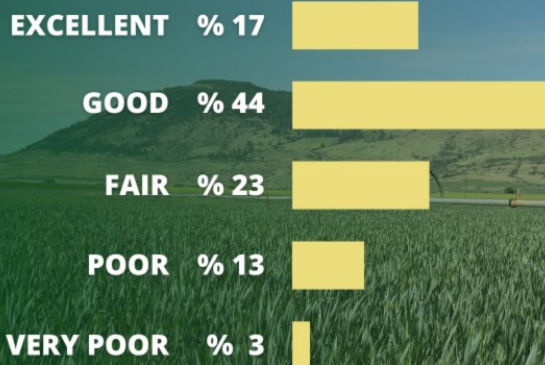

Club wheat in Sherman County field trials on June 4, 2025.

Crop Condition Rating

OREGON WINTER WHEAT CROP CONDITIONS

Week Ending June 1, 2025

OREGON
WHEAT