Entrants must be at least 21 years old.

Recipes must be original and tomato-based.

Entry must be prepared on site. Judges will come to your cook team for the judging.

Ingredients list must be provided for the judges to see (this is part of judging originality). The submission of measurements/quantities is optional. This submission may be typed or handwritten.

You will need to make enough for 4 judges.

You may (but are not required to):

- ❖ Set up/decorate your judging table
- ❖ Have an appetizer for the judges to cleanse their palate before judges your entry
- ❖ Have a bartender presentation or skit

Judging will be based on the following:

Taste: Is it pleasing to the taste buds? Does it make you want to drink more? Is there an appropriate balance of flavor?

Presentation: Is it pleasing to the eye? Does it look like a Bloody Mary? Did it catch your attention? Was the glassware appropriate? Was the table setting pleasing? Did the cook team participate or communicate with the judges?

Garnish: Was the garnish unique? Did it add value to the drink? Did it complement the drink well? Was the garnish edible?

All participants must prepare Bloody Mary onsite, in the competition area.

You may not use store bought Bloody Mary mix. They need to be fully constructed during the competition. However, your garnishments can be pre-made and brought to competition.

Participants will need to provide the glassware for the judges.

You can set-up the judging area (table and setting) prior to the judges' arrival.
