Eligibility –The Pasco County Fair Association has adopted a new rule beginning June 1, 2020 for our fair. This rule is for ALL Agriculture Projects. An exhibitor must be a member of a Pasco County 4-H or FFA. Exhibitor must also either live in Pasco County or attend a Pasco County School. If an exhibitor was eligible to show in the 2021 fair but would not be eligible under this new rule, they will be Grandfathered in. This Grandfather Rule will be in place as long as the exhibitor is a continuous exhibitor. Exhibitor must enter and show project to be eligible each year.

Any combination of males and females may be entered as long as the total number of rabbits does not exceed three (3). Pre-registration is required. All rabbits must be in the possession of the exhibitor by December 1, 2021. Rabbits that are suspected of being bred or that are bred, will not be allowed in the barn. Exhibitors must read and understand Pasco County Fair General Rules located at www.pascocountyfair.com. These rules include Safe Handling Practices, IAFE National Code of Show Ethics, and The Livestock Addendum.

- 1. Identification - Rabbits entered into the show must be permanently and legibly tattooed in the LEFT ear. Absolutely NO tattooing will be done on fairground property. If exhibitors need assistance with tattooing please contact Melissa Thompson at 813-815-2846. Any rabbit whose tattoo does not match the number given on the entry form and/or cannot be read easily will not be allowed entry into the Pasco County Fair.
- 2. Acceptable Breeds- Only breeds recognized by the American Rabbit Breeders Association in its Standard of Perfection will be accepted for entry. A complete description of each breed and breed standard can be found in the American Rabbit Breeders Associations' Standard of Perfection. To purchase a copy of The Standard of Perfection visit ARBA.net. NO CROSS BREEDS WILL BE ACCEPTED.
- 3. Entry Deadline – Entry forms must be postmarked to the Pasco County Fair Youth Rabbit Committee at the Pasco County Fair office by January 21st. No entries will be accepted after entry deadline. You must mail entries, drop offs to the fair office will not be accepted. No substitutions can be made after the entry deadline. There will be a $4.00 entry fee for each rabbit entering the show, and must be submitted with the entry form. A total of 10 Best in Display points can be earned for a correctly completed entry form. An incomplete entry form will be returned. The exhibitor MUST fill out the entry forms.

4. Rabbit Seminar - Exhibitors and parents are encouraged, but not required to attend the Rabbit Seminar presented by the Pasco County Fair Rabbit Committee. The seminar will be held at Clayton Hall at the Pasco County Fairgrounds on Monday, September 20th, 2021 at 6:00 pm. This seminar will aid in informing exhibitors about their projects pertaining to the areas of nutrition, breeding, basic care, health concerns, proper handling, husbandry practices and showmanship. 50 Best Overall Display Points will be awarded to exhibitors who sign in and out of the seminar.
5. Ethics Seminar – Pasco County Fair will now follow in policy of that of the Florida State Fair in regards to completion of ethics training. Each exhibitor will be REQUIRED to attend, and complete an approved certified ethics training course. Exhibitors under age eight, in the K-2nd category do not have to complete the ethics training. Exhibitors, who do not complete the ethics training, will not be eligible to participate in the Pasco County Fair Youth Rabbit Show, and their entry fee will not be refunded, once collected. Please note: Once the exhibitor has completed their ethics training, they will be given a certification number. Each exhibitor should record their certification number and keep it in a safe place. Certification numbers will now be required information on Pasco County Fair Youth Rabbit Show Entry Forms. Several approved certified ethics training courses will be provided free of charge through out the state of Florida. For a complete list, please visit www.pascocountyfair.com or www.floridastatefairag.com.
6. Tattoo and Health Clinic –Exhibitors are encouraged to bring their rabbits to this optional clinic in hopes to prevent a large amount of animals being turned away at check-in due to health issues. The committee will be offering tattooing as well as a general health exam to check for any parasites, diseases, etc., and treatment with Ivomec. All services will be free of charge. Animals will still be subject to inspection at check-in. This clinic will take place at the fairgrounds on January 29th, 2022 from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.
7. Arrival at Fair - Rabbits must arrive between the hours of 7:00 to 9:00 a.m. on Saturday, February 19th, 2022. Please note: Any exhibitors with schedule complications due to the Florida State Fair Open Rabbit Show release date must submit a written letter to the Pasco County Fair Youth Rabbit Committee by January 15, 2021. It is also suggested that exhibitors with such schedule conflicts also contact the Florida State Fair Open Rabbit Show. Vehicles will not be allowed on the fair midway or near the barns during Check In or Check Out.
8. Animal Inspections - Health Regulation will be strictly enforced by the committee according to Chapter 5C-4 via Florida Administration Code entitled “Admission of Animals for Exhibition” and the ARBA Standard of Perfection. Animals will be inspected outside of The Pasco County Fair Rabbit Barn. Each rabbit and cavy will be inspected by a committee member or a person approved by the committee. Any animals exhibiting any sign of illness, parasite infection, or any other health concern will not be allowed to enter the barn or be judged. If your rabbit is suspected of being bred or is bred it will not be allowed into the barn. Such concerns include but are not limited to; ear canker, pink eye, discharge from the nostrils, ears, eyes, mouth, teats, vent area or open wounds, parasitic infestations such as mange, skin mites, fur mites, ear mites, lice, fleas, ticks, vent disease, open and bleeding sore hocks, swelling of any body part, wry neck, obvious broken bones, and flaking of the skin or foreign particles of concern on the skin or any location on the hair shaft. Also signs of recent infection including matting around the nose, ears, eyes, vent area, teats, and on front legs will also be dismissed from entrance into the show. Entry fee will not be refunded. All final decisions concerning animal entrance will be up to the committee members. Any exhibitor with an animal(s) that fail to pass the health inspection will remain eligible to compete in the following: record book contest, poster contest, breed use contest, and the awards ceremony. Also, such exhibitors are still encouraged to attend the judging of the animals to gain an educational experience.

9. Judging - Judging will be Saturday, February 19th, 2022. Judging will begin after the completion of showmanship on the west side of the Pasco County Fair Rabbit Barn. Exhibitors are required to be present during judging. The decision of the judge will be final.

10. Record Books - All exhibitors are required to enter rabbit record book for competition. The exhibitor must complete the record book. Rabbit record books are available online at www.pascocountyfair.com. Record books must be submitted on Sunday, February 13th, 2022 between 2:00 – 4:00 pm at Clayton Hall. Any incomplete record book will not be judged. Record books MUST be in a 3-prong folder or 4-H folder, no notebooks will be accepted. All record books must be completed in pen and by exhibitor. If it is completed by anyone other than the exhibitor or not complete, it will not be accepted, and exhibitor will not be allowed to show. Make sure you have the correct year record book. Prior versions of the record book will receive a 0 for exhibitor points. Record books will be judged on a modified Danish System. Each exhibitor will receive a strip ribbon based on his or her score. In the event of a tie, a third party judge will decide upon the tiebreaker.

11. Showmanship - Exhibitors may compete in showmanship. Exhibitors will be judged on their ability to evaluate and handle their rabbit, as well as answering breed specific and general knowledge questions. Exhibitors must be dressed in official FFA or 4-H attire during showmanship. More information can be found on the last page of the Florida State Fair Rabbit Skill-a-thon Manual. Which can be located at Floridastatefairag.com. Showmanship will begin promptly at 10 am.

12. Educational Poster- Exhibitors may enter the rabbit poster contest. The purpose of the poster is to promote the rabbit industry and educate the general public. All posters must be 14" x 22".
