

WAIVER AND RELEASE OF LIABILITY

PLEASE READ BEFORE SIGNING

I, the undersigned, voluntarily acknowledge and agree that in consideration for being allowed to participate in Peoples Federal Credit Union's ("Peoples") Membership Appreciation Day I understand that the risk of injury exists when participating in certain activities, including but not limited to the petting zoo and inflatable jump/bounce houses. I understand that I am independently and solely responsible for my actions, and the actions of those in my care, as it relates to the participation in the Membership Appreciation Day activities.

In consideration of my, and those in my care, desire to voluntarily participate in said activities I hereby agree to unconditionally and absolutely release, waive, indemnify, hold harmless, and discharge Peoples Federal Credit Union, and all of its employees, affiliates, agents, representatives successors, and assigns ("Released Parties") from any and all claims, expenses, damages (including injuries and death to persons and property damage), actions and causes of action, and all liability of whatsoever kind or nature, arising from participation in any and all activities associated with the Membership Appreciation Day, whether caused by negligence, gross negligence or intentional conduct of any person.

I voluntarily accept and assume these risks and further declare that I am voluntarily participating, or allowing those in my care to participate in, the aforementioned activities and am participating in the activities entirely at my own risk. I am aware of the risks associated with participating in the activities, which may include but are not limited to physical or psychological injury, pain, suffering, temporary or permanent disability, and economic or emotional loss. Nonetheless, I assume all related risks, both known and unknown, as they relate to participation in these activities.

The undersigned further acknowledges that I have carefully read this Waiver and Release of Liability, understand its contents, and recognize that by signing this agreement I am voluntarily giving up any and all claims or causes of action that I otherwise may have against Peoples Federal Credit Union and assume all risks associated with participation.

This Waiver and Release of Liability shall remain in effect for the duration of my, or those in my care, participation in the activity.
