General Information

Competition is open to everyone unless otherwise stated.

During the Fair, the grounds will be kept equipped and resources will be made available for the comfort of the public to the best of our ability.

A First Aid Station will be maintained in the Cass County Sheriff's Building located at the south end of the grounds in front of the Grandstand.

The Public: The management will consider it a great favor if the guests report any mistreatment or extortion practiced by an employee, exhibitor or concessionaire to the CEO. Please do not wait until the Fair is over to file a complaint, do so immediately.

Advertising: Under NO circumstances will any person or firm be allowed to place advertising matter anywhere on the grounds, nor is anyone permitted to distribute advertising without prior approval.

The Fair management and board reserve the right to remove from the Fairgrounds any person(s) at any time.

NO LIABILITY

1. Every possible protection and courtesy will be extended to the public, concessionaires and exhibitors at the Red River Valley Fair. Neither the Board, nor the Fair shall be responsible for any loss of exhibits, animals, or equipment in case of fire, theft or loss from any other cause.

2. The Red River Valley Fair Association, its board, agents, or employees shall not be held liable in case of injury to exhibitors, concessionaires, or the public on the grounds or in the buildings from any cause whatsoever while on the Red River Valley Fairgrounds.
3. Items entered for judging will be touched/handled.

SHOW & JUDGING RULES

1. The Superintendent and their assistants will be in charge of the exhibits in their departments. Requests and complaints should be made through the Superintendent.
2. Judges need not make awards in classes where competition is lacking.
3. In classes where there is only one entry, placing will be awarded at the discretion of the judge(s).
4. Competent and non-partial persons will be secured to act as judges in all departments. At no time will a judge be allowed to judge their own entry or an entry submitted by a member of their immediate family.
5. The Superintendent of each department will have information as to the time and place judging will be done. Exhibitors will be expected to secure this information from their Superintendent.
6. The rules and instructions laid down for the judges are printed elsewhere in this Premium Book and exhibitors should read them carefully.
7. The judges have strict instructions regarding attempts at interference on the part of exhibitors or others. Please read the rules carefully.
8. Any person attempting to interfere with or influence the judge(s) while performing their duties, or at any time while on the grounds of the Fair use contemptuous or abusive language, shall forfeit their right to any premiums they may have won, and may be removed from the grounds. Judges are requested to report any infraction of this rule.
9. All exhibits must be the work of the individual and must have been completed within the past year. Do not enter projects under your name if you did not do all the work. If the project was worked on by more than one person, all names must be included.
10. You will be allowed to bring your 2020 Fair exhibits to the 2021 Fair since the 2020 Fair was canceled.
11. If more than one medium is used (i.e., machine and hand work), that information must be included.
12. Any exhibit removed from the Fair early shall forfeit ribbon and prize money.
13. Judging result book is final!

Protests

1. All protests must be made in writing to Fair Management within twenty-four hours of the time the award is made. An award is made when the notation of the judge's decision is entered in the department award book.
2. No protest or appeal based upon the statement that the judge or judges are incompetent or have overlooked an animal or article will be considered by Fair Management or the board of directors.
3. Protests must state plainly the cause of complaint or appeal, with specific charges and recital of facts relied upon by the rule violated, naming witnesses and their addresses by whose proof is to be made.
4. All questions in dispute or differences not covered by these rules shall be referred to the Governing Board of Directors whose decision shall be final.
