Marketing and Events Internship

As our Marketing and Events Intern you will help the Director of Marketing and Events to promote our events, ensuring that the public stays well-informed. You will assist in preparing for our events to guarantee an exciting experience for our customers. Every day you are using the knowledge you have and learning additional skills on how to make effective Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and TikTok posts. Some days you may be promoting an event through social media platforms, creating graphics, printing signage, or helping set up an event.

We know you may be a student and busy finishing your spring semester, we are willing to work with your class schedule until your year is complete. We are then looking for you to work full time through summer and some hours into the fall if your schedule permits. We are a Fair so of course we have a fun environment filled with new adventures and tasks each day. You will never be bored and best of all you will get paid to have fun!

To thrive in this position, you must be familiar with social media platforms and how to navigate them. You possess the ability to manage data effectively in excel and craft professional communications. It's possible that you have experience crafting social media posts for a club or organization. You are able to create correspondence with donors, executives, or customers.

This is not like many jobs where you will sit behind a desk all day. You will work with a great group of people that collaborate on ideas and make the fun happen.

Ideal start date of April 1st, with the flexibility to accommodate a school schedule.
