Reminder! Entry Deadline is June 26, 2026 for ALL livestock entries. All livestock entries are online only!!

General Information & Rules for Livestock

- All entries will be online only, please do not mail in entries. Entry Deadline is June 26, 2026 for ALL livestock
- Barn space is limited and when the barns are full all other entries will be returned
- Refunds: Once registered, there will be no refunds. Refunds can be requested with a veterinarian note.
- There are no double entries. If you have a breeding animal, it cannot be entered as a market animal.
- Upon arrival, all entries are subject to inspection by the Red River Valley Fair. Any animal deemed ill or unacceptable for display will be removed
- Protest: All protests must be made in writing and accompanied by a deposit of $100. Deposit will be forfeited if the protest is not sustained. Such protest must state plainly the cause of complaint or appeal and must be filed with the fair manager within 24 hours of show completion. All expenses incurred because of protest will be the responsibility of protester regardless of results. No complaint or appeal based upon the statement that the judge or judges are incompetent will be considered. Where a protest is made against competition of an animal, notice should be filed with the Superintendent of the department before the class is passed upon, so that the judges may be instructed to place a reserve award, that premiums be properly distributed in the event the protest is sustained.
- Bedding: Straw and chips may be purchased on the grounds. Purchases can be made in respective barns with times posted in respective barns. Straw is not allowed in barns. Shavings are $8.00/bags and straw bales (for tie-outs only) are $6.00/bale.
- The space and stalls in the barns are for exhibit purposes and must not be filled with feed & tack.
- The management will use diligence to ensure safety of exhibits after their arrival and placement, but in no case will they be responsible for any loss or damage occasioned by or arising from any animal or article on exhibition, and the exhibitors shall indemnify the Fair management against all legal or other proceedings in regard thereto.
- Release of Exhibits: All exhibits must remain in place until the release time given under its section in this book except livestock moving to home county fairs that are held on conflicting dates with prior approval from Superintendent.
- Premiums: Will not be paid if exhibits are removed before stated time of release, unless authorized by the Superintendent. No premiums will be paid to any exhibitor unless the full and complete requirements as to pedigree numbers, registration, etc., are complied with. All sheep, swine, goat, and beef stalls must be cleaned prior to leaving or premiums will be not be paid.
- Judges must not award prizes to an unworthy animal/exhibit. It is the intention of the Fair Board that no premium or distinction of any kind shall be given an animal that is not deserving. This rule must be strictly adhered to whether there is competition or not.
- Where there are fewer entries in a class than the number of premiums offered, judges may, at their discretion, award a prize or prizes of such grade as the animals deserve.
- Judges shall report to the Superintendent any exhibitor who in any way, whether in person, by agents, or assistants, interferes during the adjudication, or shows any disrespect to them. The Superintendent shall, at his/her discretion, demand a proper apology from such exhibitor, or he/she may be excluded from such competition and the Board may withhold any premiums that have been awarded him/her, and expel him/her from further competition at the Fair.
- All Alleys Must Be Clean and Accessible to the Public Between 9:00 am and 9:00 pm.
- Satisfactory evidence to the Superintendent in charge will be required that the animals exhibited as breeders are not barren. No awards will be made where there is unsoundness in breeding animals, or where there is any question as to its transmissibility.
- Fast Driving or Riding of any description will not be permitted within the grounds. Any violation of this rule will be severely dealt with by the Management and the guilty person removed from the grounds. Automobiles are prohibited in any section of the grounds whenever safety demands.
- Brand Inspection: North Dakota Century Code Chapter 36-09-23: "No person shall remove cattle, horses, or mules from this state or to within a mile of any boundary of the state for the purpose of removal unless such livestock have been inspected for marks and brands by an official brand inspector of the North Dakota Stockman's Association and a certificate of inspection shall accompany such livestock to destination."
- No smoking in the barns or area around the barns
- Health certificates from licensed veterinarians are required on all out of state animals.
- North Dakota Origin Cattle - Health Certificates not required.
- Registration papers are required on all animals.
- State health standards must be met. Refer to Livestock Section Rules for regulations & health rules. Contact your local veterinarian for regulations on bringing cattle into North Dakota
- A First Aid Station will be maintained in the Cass County Sheriff's Building located at the south end of the grounds in front of the Grandstand.
- Advertising: Under NO circumstances will any person or firm be allowed to place advertising matter anywhere on the grounds, nor is anyone permitted to distribute advertising without prior approval.
- NO ON SITE SALE OF ANIMALS ALLOWED, you will forfeit any premium dollars and may be asked not to return to future Fair if caught.
- All animals must be kept in the proper building(s) and cannot be carried or walked around the Fairgrounds
- Premium checks will be mailed within 45 days from the close of the Fair.
- Tagging guidelines will follow ND Junior Point Show rules. All Market animals must be tagged (all sheep, swine and goats must be tagged. Scrapie tags are required for sheep and goats).
- All registered animals must have their registration papers or the animal must show in the Commercial Division
