LLAMA SHOW

SPECIAL RULES & GUIDELINES

1. Show Fees: There will be a $3 per llama fee (for example: if you enter three llamas, the fee is $9) payable to ILR.
2. This show shall be run under ILR rules except where there is a conflict with State or local rules. All applicable ages of llamas and exhibitors shall be determined per ILR Rules.
3. Please bring the originals of your ILR certificates to the Riverside County Fair at check-in. Failure to meet this requirement prohibits entry in the show. Pending registrations are not acceptable.
4. Owner/Exhibitors must be the registered owners and make entry in the exact name (owner and animal) as shown on the registration certificate. Exhibitor/owner may use Permission to Show form provided by ILR which grants named on the registration certificate to a person who is using an animal to show under their name. Exceptions: Owner may use a handler to exhibit their animal. 4H / FFA and site rules will take precedence over ILR rules and guidelines regarding permission to show.
5. Health certificates are required for out of state Llamas.
6. Llamas may be shown in Youth or Adult Performance classes but not both.
7. Youth exhibitors shall show only one (1) llama in youth classes, but more than one (1) youth exhibitor may show the same llama.
8. If there are less than six (6) entries in any two (2) Youth Divisions or in the Halter Wool Divisions age divisions may be combined for all Halter classes.
9. See general rules for camping registration information.
10. Pen Size is typically 7 x 7 - Space is limited. Self-penning is acceptable. (Those camping will have first priority for outside self-penning.) Requests will be considered but may not be accommodated if space is limited.
11. This is a SHAVINGS ONLY show. Carpet or paper chips may be used. No straw allowed.
12. Pens must be cleaned prior to check out.
13. NO DOGS ARE ALLOWED ON FAIRGROUNDS.

HALTER SHOW

SPECIAL RULES & GUIDELINES

1. All llamas shall be presented for judging with a halter and lead rope and no additional decorations.
2. Halters shall not have tassels, pompoms, or other removable decorations.
3. Crias may not accompany nursing llama mothers into rings. We recommend not showing nursing mothers.
4. The steward or judge may dismiss unruly animals from the ring.
5. All alpacas and llamas must be shown in the correct age and sex classification.
6. No ranch, personal, alpaca, or llama names shall be displayed on exhibitor or animal during the class.
7. Llamas may be entered in only one halter class and wool division.
8. Large classes may be divided for judging at the request of the judge. However, only one set of awards will be given.
9. Alpacas and llamas may not be moved from one class to another after halter judging has begun except at the judge's discretion.
10. Exhibitors are responsible for being at ringside ten (10) minutes before the scheduled time of their class.
11. Youth 7 through 19 years old may show intact males. It is recommended that youth 7 through 12 years old not show intact males over 24 months of age. The judge has the option to dismiss an exhibitor with an unruly animal. Dismissal can take place even before the animals get in the ring if the matter is brought to the judge's attention by the show management, gate personnel, or the ring steward.
12. All halter classes are point classes; however, there must be a total of three (3) animals or more in each class before points are awarded.
13. All llamas five (5) months and older, entered in approved classes, with the exception of Youth Classes, must be registered or have passed screening with the International Llama Registry (ILR) or the Canadian Livestock Record Corporation (CLRC).
14. Non-Breeder llamas do not have to be registered or have passed screening with the ILR or the CLRC except those recorded with ILR and participating in the Award System.
15. Animals ages are determined by the show date.
16. Llamas will be shown in one of the four halter class divisions: Suri, Silky, Light, Medium, and Heavy wool.
17. It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to place his/her llama in the correct division. If in doubt the correct wool division for their llama, exhibitors should ask for the opinion of the show steward or show management before the halter judging begins.
18. All substitutions will only be allowed within the Division and Class. Per California State rules after more than two changes, the exhibitor will be charged $5.00 per change.
